Stand Entrance Hymn NEH 112

Jesus lives! thy terrors now
Can, O Death, no more appal us;
Jesus lives! by this we know
Thou, O grave, canst not enthrall us.
Alleluya!

Jesus lives! henceforth is death
But the gate of life immortal;
This shall calm our trembling breath,
When we pass its gloomy portal.
Alleluya!

Jesus lives! for us he died;
Then, alone to Jesus living,
Pure in heart may we abide,
Glory to our Saviour giving.
Alleluya!

Jesus lives! our hearts know well
Nought from us his love shall sever;
Life, nor death, nor powers of hell
Tear us from his keeping ever.
Alleluya!

Jesus lives! to him the throne
Over all the world is given;
May we go where he is gone,
Rest and reign with him in heaven.
Alleluya!

Sit First Reading Acts 2. 42–47, read by Linda Hutchinson

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Many were baptised and were added to the community.

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Easter Anthems

Second Reading | Peter 2. 19–25, read by Matthew Peck

A reading from the first letter of Peter.

Brothers and sisters:

It is to your credit if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, where is the credit in that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps.

'He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.'

When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

Stand Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Sentence

I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, says the Lord.

Gospel John 10. 1–10

Jesus said to the Pharisees:

'Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.' Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.'

|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | Faithful Shepherd, feed me
In the pastures green;
Faithful Shepherd, lead me
Where thy steps are seen. | 2 | Hold me fast, and guide me
In the narrow way;
So, with thee beside me,
I shall never stray. |
| 3 | Daily bring me nearer
To the heavenly shore;
May my faith grow clearer,
May I love thee more. | 4 | Hallow every pleasure,
Every gift and pain;
Be thyself my treasure,
Though none else I gain. |
| | 5 | | Day by day prepare me
As thou seest best,
Then let angels bear me
To thy promised rest. |

Communion Anthem Ave verum corpus · Edward Elgar

Ave verum Corpus natum ex Maria Virgine vere passum immolatum in cruce pro homine.
Cujus latus perforatum unda fluxit sanguine.
Esto nobis praegustatum in mortis examine.
O clemens, O pie, O dulcis Jesu fili Mariae.

*Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary,
who truly suffered upon the cross for mankind:
from whose pierced side there came forth water and blood;
give us now, and at the time of our death, yourself to be our food.
O gentle, holy Jesus, Son of Mary.*

Stand Final Hymn NEH 117

|---|--|
| 1 The Day of Resurrection!
Earth, tell it out abroad;
The Passover of gladness,
The Passover of God!
From death to life eternal,
From earth unto the sky,
Our Christ hath brought us over
With hymns of victory. | 2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection-light;
And, listening to his accents,
May hear so calm and plain
His own 'All hail,' and, hearing,
May raise the victor strain. |
| 3 Now let the heavens be joyful,
And earth her song begin,
The round world keep high triumph,
And all that is therein;
Let all things seen and unseen
Their notes of gladness blend,
For Christ the Lord hath risen,
Our joy that hath no end. | |

At the recent meeting with the Dean to discuss LGBTI issues and the church, members of the congregation asked to be resourced to better understand the rationale behind the cathedral's inclusive position from within the Church of England's appeal to scripture, reason and tradition. In response, a short teaching course will be offered across three Sundays in July in the Garry Weston Library. More details to follow.

Congratulations

to George Martin who was awarded a Southwark Star this year as Trustee of the Year, in recognition of his ten years of involvement with and current chairmanship of the Robes Project. We are delighted that George's hard work and commitment has been recognised and that the Robes Project goes from strength to strength.

Dry Stone Wall in the Churchyard

Earlier this week the Cathedral took part in London Craft Week. One of the activities we hosted was the building of a dry stone wall in the Churchyard. The congregation are invited to have a look at the wall as well as add some stones. John Holt from the London School of Dry Stone Walling will be on hand after the service and for most of the afternoon to assist and take any questions you may have about this fascinating ancient craft.

Lesson-readers, Intercessors and Eucharistic Ministers (Communion Administrants) needed at the Eucharist

It's time to renew the teams of regular members of the congregation who undertake these roles; they are a vital part of the weekly ministry of the Cathedral. We would also like to introduce lay intercessors at the 9.00 am Sunday Eucharists.

We need people who are willing to serve the needs of the congregation. Previous experience is an advantage but not essential, as training and ongoing support will be provided. We particularly welcome applications from young people, members of ethnic minorities and people with disabilities. Those who have ministered in these ways here recently or in the past are also welcome to apply.

If you like to find out more: there will be a Briefing Session on Sunday 28 May between 9.45 and 10.30 am. This is the closing date for applications.

To request an application pack or for an informal chat about the role, please contact Michelle Ford, Volunteers Officer; 020 7367 6739 or michelle.ford@southwark.anglican.org

Gift Aid

If you are a UK taxpayer the Cathedral may be able to claim back gift aid on any donations you make to us, normally adding a further 25% to the value. However, please note that you can only gift aid your donation if you pay tax in a tax year. If you do not currently pay tax, or do not pay sufficient tax to cover what might be reclaimed on your donations, you should not complete the yellow gift aid envelopes. HMRC have, in some cases, reclaimed money direct from donors who have not paid sufficient tax to cover their gift aid. If you need to inform us that we should no longer be claiming gift aid on your donations, please contact the Cathedral Accountant on 0207 367 6709 or toyin.tukasi@southwark.anglican.org

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overy, Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
