

SOUTHWARK CATHEDRAL

The Fifth Sunday of Easter

Sunday 14 May 2017

An inclusive Christian community growing in orthodox faith and radical love

Welcome to Southwark Cathedral.

If you have been worshipping here for a little while, and are beginning to feel at home and would like to know more about playing your part in the life of this community, please ask one of the Stewards or the clergy for a blue Welcome Card, and we'll be in touch.

Communicant members of all denominations are welcome to receive Communion at this service; please come forward as directed by the Stewards. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like a blessing, please bring the service booklet with you.

Participation. If you have been a regular at the Cathedral for six months or more, please ensure that your name is added to the Cathedral Electoral Roll - ask Stewards for details or email cathedral@southwark.anglican.org

Giving: Regular worshippers are asked to join the Planned Giving Scheme by setting up a bankers order. This greatly helps the Cathedral with financial planning. A blue form is available from the Stewards.

Visitors are asked to use the yellow envelope for their offering towards the work and worship of the Cathedral. If you are a UK taxpayer, please complete the details on the envelope to enable us to claim back the tax as Gift Aid. (Cheques to Southwark Cathedral.)

Children and young people during the 11.00am Eucharist:

Accompanied under-4s: Crèche with play mats, toys, songs and stories in the Education Centre.

Reception class to Year 3: JuniorXpress 1 in the Education Centre. (On holiday until 30 April.)

Years 4-6: JuniorXpress 2 in the Queen Elizabeth Room. (On holiday until 30 April.)

11-18s: YouthXpress 10.30am on first and third Sunday of the month in the John Trevor Williams Room.

Following the Choral Eucharist tea and coffee are served.

Listen up! Sermons delivered in the Cathedral are available as text from www.southwark.anglican.org/cathedral/sermons, where you can also find the weekly service sheet. Podcasts of sermons at Southwark Cathedral can be downloaded from iTunes by searching for Southwark Cathedral Sermons.

Stand Entrance Hymn CP 334

Awake! awake: fling off the night!
For God has sent a glorious light;
and we who live in Christ's new day must works of darkness put away.

Awake and rise, with love renewed, and with the Spirit's power endued.
The light of life in us must glow,
And fruit of truth and goodness show.

Let in the light; all sin expose to Christ, whose life no darkness knows.
Before his cross for guidance kneel;
his light will judge, and judging, heal.

Awake, and rise up from the dead, and Christ his light on you will shed.
Its power will wrong desires destroy,
and your whole nature fill with joy.

Then sing for joy, and use each day;
give thanks for everything alway.
Lift up your hearts; with one accord praise God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

John Raphael Peacey

Sit      First Reading Acts 7. 55–60, read by James Donald-Akin

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Standing before the high priests and the council,

Stephen, filled with the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. 'Look,' he said, 'I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!' But they covered their ears, and with a loud shout all rushed together against him. Then they dragged him out of the city and began to stone him; and the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul. While they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, 'Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.' Then he knelt down and cried out in a loud voice, 'Lord, do not hold this sin against them.' When he had said this, he died.

Easter Anthems

Second Reading | Peter 2. 2–10, read by Amuda Poongavanam

A reading from the first letter of Peter.

Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation— if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in scripture:

'See, I am laying in Zion a stone,
a cornerstone chosen and precious;
and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.'

To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe,

'The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner', and

'A stone that makes them stumble, and a rock that makes them fall.'

They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Once you were not a people,
but now you are God's people;
once you had not received mercy,
but now you have received mercy.

Stand Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Sentence

I have not spoken on my own, says the Lord, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment about what to say and what to speak.

Gospel John 14. 1–14

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house there are many dwelling-places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going.’ Thomas said to him, ‘Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?’ Jesus said to him, ‘I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.’

Philip said to him, ‘Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, “Show us the Father”? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.’

Sit Sermon

Chorale Prelude

Es is das Heil uns kommen her (BWV 638) · Johann Sebastian Bach

Sit Intercessions led by Linda Ridgers-Waite

Offertory Anthem Beati quorum via · Charles Villiers Stanford

*Beati quorum via integra est: qui ambulant in lege Domini.
Blessed are they whose way is blameless: who walk in the law of the Lord.*

Stand    Offertory Hymn NEH 374

How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
  In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
  And drives away his fear.

It makes the wounded spirit whole,
  And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
  And to the weary rest.

Dear name! the rock on which I build,
  My shield and hiding-place,
My never-failing treasury filled
  With boundless stores of grace.

Jesus! my Shepherd, Brother, Friend,
  My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End, Accept the praise I bring.

Weak is the effort of my heart,
  And cold my warmest thought;
But when I see thee as thou art,
  I'll praise thee as I ought.

Till then I would thy love proclaim
  With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of thy name
  Refresh my soul in death.

John Newton

Stand    Eucharistic Prayer

Communion Anthem Surely thou hast tasted · Bernard Rose

Stand Final Hymn NEH 484 (tune 167 Aurelia)

The church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord.
She is his new creation by water and the word.
From heaven he came and sought her to be his holy bride.
With his own blood he bought her,
and for her life he died.

Elect from every nation,
yet one o'er all the earth,
her charter of salvation:
one Lord, one faith, one birth.
One holy name she blesses, partakes one holy food,
and to one hope she presses, with every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder this world sees her oppressed, by schisms rent asunder,
by heresies distressed,
yet saints their watch are keeping;
their cry goes up: "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping shall be the morn of song.

Mid toil and tribulation, and tumult of her war,
she waits the consummation of peace forevermore:
till with the vision glorious her longing eyes are blest, and the great church victorious shall be the church at rest.

Yet she on earth has union with God, the Three in One, and mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we,
like them, the meek and lowly,
may live eternally.

3.00pm Choral Evensong

Responses Francis Jackson

Setting in G · Francis Jackson

Hymns 234; CP 314 (tune: NEH 117 Ellacombe)

Psalm 147. 1–12

Readings Zechariah 4. 1–10; Revelation 21. 1–14

Anthem My beloved spake · Patrick Hadley

Preacher Canon Leanne Roberts, Treasurer

Hymn CP 314

Now from the heavens descending is seen a glorious light, the bride of Christ in splendour, arrayed in purest white.
She is the holy city, whose radiance is the grace of all the saints in glory, from every time and place.

This is the hour of gladness for bridegroom and for bride.
The Lamb's great feast is ready,
his bride is at his side.
How blest are those invited to share the wedding-feast:
the least become the greatest,
the greatest are the least.

He who is throned in heaven takes up his dwelling-place among his chosen people, who see him face to face.
No sound is heard of weeping, for pain and sorrow cease,
and sin shall reign no longer,
but love and joy and peace.

See how a new creation is brought at last to birth,
a new and glorious heaven,
a new and glorious earth.
Death's power for ever broken,
its empire swept away,
the promised dawn of glory begins its endless day.

General Notices

The APCM – Results

Following the APCM on Sunday 7 May, we are pleased to announce the following were elected:

Daniel Chumbley as a Cathedral Warden.

Helen Quintrell from the congregation to the Chapter.

Eric Collins from the congregation to the Cathedral Council.

John Beynon, Liz Bryant, Amanda Hill, Elizabeth James, Marion Marples, Jennifer Schwalbenberg and Neil Tryner to serve as Cathedral representatives to Deanery Synod.

Congratulations

to George Martin who was awarded a Southwark Star this year as Trustee of the Year, in recognition of his ten years of involvement with and current chairmanship of the Robes Project. We are delighted that George's hard work and commitment has been recognised and that the Robes Project goes from strength to strength.

A hike for Macmillan Cancer Care

One of the Cathedral Wardens, Matthew Hall, is hiking 26.3 miles in eight hours for Macmillan Cancer Care. This gruelling and torturous hike will be over the Seven Sisters from Brighton to Eastbourne on 10 June. He is asking you to please consider sponsoring him using this link: justgiving.com/fundraising/MatthewsHike

Dry Stone Wall in the Churchyard

Earlier this month the Cathedral took part in London Craft Week. One of the activities we hosted was the building of a dry stone wall in the Churchyard which will be up for our visitors to admire until 17 June.

New Lucy Brown House Volunteers needed

Meet residents for a cup of tea and a chat on Wednesdays at 3.30–4.30pm. For some residents this is the highlight of the week! Contact mm@marionmarples.co.uk if interested to join the rota. Thank you.

Gift Aid

If you are a UK taxpayer the Cathedral may be able to claim back gift aid on any donations you make to us, normally adding a further 25% to the value. However, please note that you can only gift aid your donation if you pay tax in a tax year. If you do not currently pay tax, or do not pay sufficient tax to cover what might be reclaimed on your donations, you should not complete the yellow gift aid envelopes. HMRC have, in some cases, reclaimed money direct from donors who have not paid sufficient tax to cover their gift aid. If you need to inform us that we should no longer be claiming gift aid on your donations, please contact the Cathedral Accountant on 0207 367 6709 or toyin.tukasi@southwark.anglican.org

Lesson –readers, Intercessors and Eucharistic Ministers (Communion Administrants) needed at the Eucharist

It's time to renew the teams of regular members of the congregations who undertake these roles; they are a vital part of the weekly ministry of the Cathedral. We would also like to introduce lay intercessors at the 9.00 am Sunday Eucharists. We need people who are willing to serve the needs of the congregation. Previous experience is an advantage but not essential, as training and ongoing support will be provided.

If you like to find out more there will be a Briefing Session on Sunday 28 May between 9.45 and 10.30 am.

To request an application pack or for an informal chat about the role please contact Michelle Ford, Volunteers Officer on 020 7367 6739 or michelle.ford@southwark.anglican.org.

Closing Date for applications is 28 May.

Training Dates: Saturdays 11.00am – 1.00pm:
17 June – Eucharistic Ministers
8 July – Lesson Readers
15 July – Intercessors

We particularly welcome applications from young people, members of ethnic minorities and people with disabilities.

Those who have ministered in these ways here recently or in the past are also welcome to apply.

Food Bank

Weekly sessions of the Waterloo Foodbank are running at St George the Martyr Church at Borough on Mondays, 9.30–11.30am. If you would like to be involved and could spare a couple of hours please contact mm@marionmarples.co.uk.

Food donations can be brought to the Cathedral Shop. Current needs: UHT milk, soup, rice pudding, disposable razors, men's toiletries, rice, cartons of juice, vegetarian food.

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overy, Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
