An inclusive Christian community growing in orthodox faith and radical love

Welcome to Southwark Cathedral.

If you have been worshipping here for a little while, and are beginning to feel at home and would like to know more about playing your part in the life of this community, please ask one of the Stewards or the clergy for a blue Welcome Card, and we'll be in touch.

Communicant members of all denominations are welcome to receive Communion at this service; please come forward as directed by the Stewards. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like a blessing, please bring the service booklet with you.

Participation. If you have been a regular at the Cathedral for six months or more, please ensure that your name is added to the Cathedral Electoral Roll - ask Stewards for details or email cathedral@southwark.anglican.org

Visitors are asked to use the yellow envelope for their offering towards the work and worship of the Cathedral. If you are a UK taxpayer, please complete the details on the envelope to enable us to claim back the tax as Gift Aid. (Cheques to Southwark Cathedral.)

Stand Entrance Hymn NEH 67

- | | | | |
|---|--|---|---|
| 1 | Forty days and forty nights
Thou wast fasting in the wild,
Forty days and forty nights
Tempted and yet undefiled. | 2 | Sunbeams scorching all the day,
Chilly dewdrops nightly shed,
Prowling beasts about thy way,
Stones thy pillow, earth thy bed. |
| 3 | Let us thine endurance share,
And a while from joys abstain,
With thee watching unto prayer,
Strong with thee to suffer pain. | 4 | And if Satan, vexing sore,
Flesh or spirit should assail,
Thou, his vanquisher before,
Grant we may not faint nor fail. |

5 So shall we have peace divine,
Holier gladness ours shall be,
Round us too shall angels shine,
Such as ministered to thee.

5 Keep, O keep us, Saviour dear,
Ever constant by thy side,
That with thee we may appear
At the eternal Eastertide.

George Hunt Smytton and Francis Pott

Sit First Reading Genesis 2. 15–17; 3. 1–7 read by Nicola Golson

A reading from the book of Genesis.

The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. And the Lord God commanded the man, ‘You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die.’

Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, ‘Did God say, “You shall not eat from any tree in the garden?”’ The woman said to the serpent, ‘We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; but God said, “You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.”’ But the serpent said to the woman, ‘You will not die; for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.’ So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

Lent Prose

Second Reading Romans 5. 12–19 read by Linda Hutchinson

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

Just as sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned— sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law. Yet death exercised dominion from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who was to come.

But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man's trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many. And the free gift is not like the effect of the one man's sin. For the judgement following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification. If, because of the one man's trespass, death exercised dominion through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness exercise dominion in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

Therefore just as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man's act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all. For just as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

Stand Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Sentence

One does not live by bread alone,
but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.

Gospel Matthew 4. 1–11

Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.' But he answered, 'It is written,

“One does not live by bread alone,
but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.”’

Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written,

“He will command his angels concerning you”,
and “On their hands they will bear you up,
so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.”’

Jesus said to him, 'Again it is written,

“Do not put the Lord your God to the test.”’

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour; and he said to him, 'All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.' Jesus said to him, 'Away with you, Satan! for it is written,

“Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.”’

Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

Stand Offertory Hymn NEH 393

Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us
 O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us;
 For we have no help but thee;
Yet possessing every blessing
 If our God our Father be.

Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us,
 All our weakness thou dost know;
Thou didst tread this earth before us,
 Thou didst feel its keenest woe;
Self denying, death defying,
 Thou to Calvary didst go.

Spirit of our God, descending,
 Fill our hearts with heavenly joy;
Love with every passion blending,
 Pleasure that can never cloy;
Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
 Nothing can our peace destroy.

Communion Anthem Drop, drop, slow tears • William Walton

Stand Final Hymn NEH 420

○ Jesus, I have promised
 To serve thee to the end;
Be thou for ever near me,
 My Master and my Friend;
I shall not fear the battle
 If thou art by my side,
Nor wander from the pathway
 If thou wilt be my guide.

○ let me hear thee speaking
 In accents clear and still,
Above the storms of passion,
 The murmurs of self-will;
○ speak to reassure me,
 To hasten or control;
○ speak, and make me listen,
 Thou guardian of my soul.

○ Jesus, thou hast promised
 To all who follow thee,
That where thou art in glory
 There shall thy servant be;
And, Jesus, I have promised
 To serve thee to the end;
○ give me grace to follow,
 My Master and my Friend.

○ let me see thy footmarks,
 And in them plant mine own;
My hope to follow duly
 Is in thy strength alone;
○ guide me, call me, draw me,
 Uphold me to the end;
And then in heaven receive me,
 My Saviour and my Friend.

LGBT and Southwark Cathedral

In response to our Vision Statement the Chapter made one of its priorities the full inclusion of LGBT people. Following the recent meeting of the General Synod and the failure of the report by the House of Bishops to gain full support, a meeting was held with members of the congregation. Over 50 people attended that hastily arranged meeting. The purpose was to listen to the viewpoints expressed in the light of the Synod debate and the Pastoral Letter from the Bishop of Southwark. It was a good meeting during which the Dean and the Residentiary Canons as well as other members of Chapter heard a variety of opinions. As the Dean said in the Choral Eucharist: there is no expectation that everyone who attends the Cathedral agrees on the issues around same-gender marriage though it is hoped that we are all committed to full inclusion of all people. At the next meeting of the Chapter the issues raised will be discussed and the Wardens will report back to the congregation as after every Chapter meeting. Until then you are asked to pray for each other, for Bishop Christopher and for the Archbishops and the whole church as we seek God's will and the form of radical inclusion that we seek.

Lucy Brown House: Vacancies

Current needs: small tins (not catering) of tinned meats, rice puddings and individual packs of cereal; coffee and small cartons of juice; mens toiletries including disposable razors, shampoo and deodorant. However, please note that the food bank is currently well stocked with other items.

Confessions

Lent 2016

No, not a mistake but a thank you for the collection organised by Alma Simpson at last year's Lent Groups. Thanks to this effort we have now twinned the ladies 'loos' with a toilet in in Kalengera Sud, Rutshuru, Democratic Republic of Congo. Perhaps we can twin the gents loo this year?

Congregational survey

The Chapter has set up a Communications Group to review all our methods of communicating with our congregation, visitors and beyond.

Please help us by completing the short survey enclosed with your service sheet today and placing your completed form in the box at the back of the Nave. Alternatively, fill out the online version: surveymonkey.co.uk/r/3YSXQPM.

Thank you for your time.

Robes project

Donations of toothpaste, tooth brushes, deodorant, shampoo, soap, shower gels and body lotions would be gratefully received for our guests. It is important that they are in small sizes please.

Many thanks for your help with this. Please give to the vergers.

Today

Sound system

We apologise for the fact that the sound system seems to be getting worse and worse. A group is meeting to look at how improvements can be made. Until then: if you use the loop or require a clearer sound – we are advised that it is better to sit further back in the nave than towards the front. If you would like to give financial support towards the cost of improvements please speak to one of the clergy.

Lent Group – Reading the Bible Through Other Eyes

Can we share an understanding of the good news we find in the bible with people whose life experience and culture is really different from our own? How does the bible shape us? How do we shape the bible? These are some of the questions we will be reflecting on in our Lent Course, not only listening to one another but also to the voices of bible readers from around the world.

Groups meet at 9.45 or 12.15 each Sunday in Lent starting today. If you are hoping to attend the majority of sessions please join the earlier group, meeting in the Queen Elizabeth Room. If you are likely to want to swap around between sessions, please join the later group in the Tutu Room. It is never too late to start!

The course booklet is available in hard copy from the cathedral and as a pdf from Susanna Bloomfield, susanna.bloomfield@southwark.anglican.org. Video introductions are available on Youtube: youtube.com/channel/UCa11PTQIUohMqyblc9Lipkw

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overy, Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
