growing in orthodox faith and radical love*

Welcome to Southwark Cathedral.

If you have been worshipping here for a little while, and are beginning to feel at home and would like to know more about playing your part in the life of this community, please ask one of the Stewards or the clergy for a blue Welcome Card, and we'll be in touch.

Stand Entrance Hymn NEH 148

The God of Abraham praise
Who reigns enthroned above,
Ancient of everlasting days,
And God of love:
To him uplift your voice,
At whose supreme command
From earth we rise and seek the joys
At his right hand.

Though nature's strength decay,
and earth and hell withstand,
To Canaan's bounds we urge our way
At his command.
The watery deep we pass,
With Jesus in our view,
And through the howling wilderness
Our way pursue.

The goodly land we see,
With peace and plenty blest,
A land of sacred liberty
And endless rest;
There milk and honey flow,
And oil and wine abound,
And trees of life for ever grow
With mercy crowned.

There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our Righteousness,
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of Peace:
On Sion's sacred height
His kingdom he maintains,
And glorious with his saints in light
For ever reigns.

The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high:
'Hail, Father, Son and Holy Ghost'
They ever cry:
Hail, Abraham's God and mine!
(I join the heavenly lays)
All might and majesty are thine,
And endless praise.

George Hunt Smytton and Francis Pott

Sit First Reading Genesis 12. 1–4a read by Ayo Soluade

A reading from the book of Genesis

The Lord said to Abram, ‘Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.’

So Abram went, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

Lent Prose

Second Reading Romans 4. 1–5, 13–17 read by James Donald-Adkin

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

What are we to say was gained by Abraham, our ancestor according to the flesh? For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. For what does the scripture say? ‘Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.’ Now to one who works, wages are not reckoned as a gift but as something due. But to one who without works trusts him who justifies the ungodly, such faith is reckoned as righteousness.

For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, ‘I have made you the father of many nations’)—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

Stand Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Sentence

Those who do what is true come to the Light, says the Lord, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.

Gospel John 3. 1-17

There was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, 'Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.' Jesus answered him, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.' Nicodemus said to him, 'How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?' Jesus answered, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, "You must be born from above." The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.' Nicodemus said to him, 'How can these things be?' Jesus answered him, 'Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?

'Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

'For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

'Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

Offertory Anthem Christus factus est • Anton Bruckner

Christus factus est pro nobis obediens usque ad mortem, mortem autem crucis. Propter quod et Deus exaltavit illum, et dedit illi nomen, quod est super omne nomen.

Christ became obedient for us to death, even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name.

All for Jesus! all for Jesus!
This our song shall ever be;
For we have no hope nor Saviour
If we have not hope in thee. | 2 All for Jesus! thou wilt give us
Strength to serve thee hour by hour:
None can move us from thy presence
While we trust thy love and power. |
| 3
All for Jesus! at thine altar
Thou dost give us sweet content;
There, dear saviour, we receive thee
In thy holy sacrament. | 4 All for Jesus! thou has loved us,
All for Jesus! thou hast died,
All for Jesus! thou art with us,
All for Jesus, glorified! |
| 5 All for Jesus! All for Jesus!
This the Church's song shall be,
Till at last the flock is gathered
One in love, and one in thee. | |

Communion Anthem God so loved the world • John Stainer

Stand Final Hymn NEH 485

Thy hand, O God, has guided
Thy flock, from age to age;
The wondrous tale is written,
Full clear, on every page;
Our fathers owned thy goodness,
And we their deeds record;
And both of this bear witness:
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

Thy heralds brought glad tidings
To greatest, as to least;
They bade men rise, and hasten
To share the great King's feast;
And this was all their teaching,
In every deed and word,
To all alike proclaiming
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

Through many a day of darkness,
Through many a scene of strife,
The faithful few fought bravely
To guard the nation's life.
Their gospel of redemption,
Sin pardoned, man restored,
Was all in this enfolded,
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

And we, shall we be faithless?
Shall hearts fail, hands hang down?
Shall we evade the conflict,
And cast away our crown?
Not so: in God's deep counsels
Some better thing is stored;
We will maintain, unflinching,
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

Thy mercy will not fail us,
Nor leave thy work undone;
With thy right hand to help us,
The victory shall be won;
And then, by men and angels,
Thy name shall be adored,
And this shall be their anthem,
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

Thank you for your time.

LGBT and Southwark Cathedral

In response to our Vision Statement the Chapter made one of its priorities the full inclusion of LGBT people. Following the recent meeting of the General Synod and the failure of the report by the House of Bishops to gain full support, a meeting was held with members of the congregation. Over 50 people attended that hastily arranged meeting. The purpose was to listen to the viewpoints expressed in the light of the Synod debate and the Pastoral Letter from the Bishop of Southwark. It was a good meeting during which the Dean and the Residentiary Canons as well as other members of Chapter heard a variety of opinions. As the Dean said in the Choral Eucharist, there is no expectation that everyone who attends the Cathedral agrees on the issues around same-gender marriage, though it is hoped that we are all committed to full inclusion of all people. At the next meeting of the Chapter the issues raised will be discussed and the Wardens will report back to the congregation as after every Chapter meeting. Until then you are asked to pray for each other, for Bishop Christopher and for the Archbishops and the whole church as we seek God's will and the form of radical inclusion that we seek.

Food Bank

Thanks to those who have volunteered we have started weekly sessions of the Waterloo Foodbank at St George the Martyr Church at Borough on Mondays, 9.30–11.30am. If you would like to be involved and could spare a couple of hours please contact Marion via mm@marionmarples.co.uk.

However, please note that the food bank is currently well stocked with other items.

Doorkins

We are about to publish a children's book about Doorkins and would love to include some photographs of her in action! If you have any photographs of her and would be happy for us to use them in the book, please email them to doorkinsthecathedralcat@gmail.com. Please include your name and contact details so that we can get in touch with you if needed.

Sound system

We apologise for the fact that the sound system seems to be getting worse and worse. A group is meeting to look at how improvements can be made. Until then, if you use the loop or require a clearer sound, we are advised that it is better to sit further back in the nave than towards the front. If you would like to give financial support towards the cost of improvements please speak to one of the clergy.

Confessions

If you would like to make your Confession during Lent or meet one of the clergy for a spiritual conversation please contact the Cathedral Office for an appointment.

Robes project

Donations of toothpaste, tooth brushes, deodorant, shampoo, soap, shower gels and body lotions would be gratefully received for our guests. It is important that they are in small sizes please.

Lent Group – Reading the Bible Through Other Eyes

Can we share an understanding of the good news we find in the bible with people whose life experience and culture is really different from our own? How does the bible shape us? How do we shape the bible? These are some of the questions we will be reflecting on in our Lent Course, not only listening to one another but also to the voices of bible readers from around the world.

Groups meet at 9.45 or 12.15 each Sunday in Lent. If you are hoping to attend the majority of sessions please join the earlier group, meeting in the Queen Elizabeth Room. If you are likely to want to swap around between sessions, please join the later group in the Tutu Room. It is never too late to start!

The course booklet is available in hard copy from the cathedral and as a pdf from Susanna Bloomfield, susanna.bloomfield@southwark.anglican.org. Video introductions are available on Youtube: youtube.com/

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overy, Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
