

SOUTHWARK CATHEDRAL

The Third Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 2 July 2017

An inclusive Christian community growing in orthodox faith and radical love

Welcome to Southwark Cathedral.

We are a community that seeks to enfold all people in the love of God. If you wish to speak to a priest after the service, if you wish to find a corner to pray, if you wish simply to find some peace, please feel free and welcome to do so.

Communicant members of all denominations are welcome to receive Communion at this service; please come forward as directed by the Stewards. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like a blessing, please bring the service booklet with you.

Participation. If you have been a regular at the Cathedral for six months or more, please ensure that your name is added to the Cathedral Electoral Roll - ask Stewards for details or email cathedral@southwark.anglican.org

Giving: Regular worshippers are asked to join the Planned Giving Scheme by setting up a bankers order. This greatly helps the Cathedral with financial planning. A blue form is available from the Stewards.

Visitors are asked to use the yellow envelope for their offering towards the work and worship of the Cathedral. If you are a UK taxpayer, please complete the details on the envelope to enable us to claim back the tax as Gift Aid. (Cheques to Southwark Cathedral.)

Children and young people during the 11.00am Eucharist:

Accompanied under-4s: Crèche with play mats, toys, songs and stories in the Education Centre.

Reception class to Year 3: JuniorXpress 1 in the Education Centre.

Years 4-6: JuniorXpress 2 in the Queen Elizabeth Room.

11-18s: YouthXpress 10.30am on first and third Sunday of the month in the John Trevor Williams Room.

Following the Choral Eucharist tea and coffee are served.

Listen up! Sermons delivered in the Cathedral are available as text from www.southwark.anglican.org/cathedral/sermons, where you can also find the weekly service sheet. Podcasts of sermons at Southwark Cathedral can be downloaded from iTunes by searching for Southwark Cathedral Sermons.

General Notices

Canon Stephen Hance

We are delighted to announce the appointment of Canon Stephen Hance as the new Dean of Derby. He will be installed as Dean on Saturday 30 September. Stephen, Jacqui and their family will be greatly missed at Southwark and we wish them our congratulations, love and prayers as they prepare for this exciting new ministry. There will be an opportunity to say farewell to them on 3 September.

Doorkins the Cathedral Cat

by Lisa Gutwein, illustrated by Rowan Ambrose. Published by Jessica Kingsley Books. Available from Sunday 20 August.

Our forthcoming children's book which is written, illustrated and published by members of the congregation, is now available to pre-order from the Cathedral Shop for the special price of £9.99. Please visit the Shop for further information or to order copies in advance.

Food Bank

Weekly sessions of the Waterloo Foodbank are running at St George the Martyr Church at Borough on Mondays, 9.30–11.30am. If you would like to be involved and could spare a couple of hours please contact mm@marionmarples.co.uk.

Food donations can be brought to the Cathedral Shop. Current needs: tinned meats, rice (500g packs), tinned fruit, tinned vegetables, UHT milk, small packs cereals.

London Historians – Membership Offer

Do you enjoy the history of Southwark as much as London Historians? If so, you may want to join us. But who are we? London Historians is an association which explores and shares the history of our great city through regular newsletters, events and meetings. Founded in 2010, we have 600 Members and many thousands of followers on social media. There are professors among our number, for sure, but while London Historians has expert members its main focus is the enthusiast who loves London.

We'd like to offer the congregation and Friends of wonderful Southwark Cathedral a £10 saving when you join London Historians, from £39 to £29 per year. Please use this hidden web page to sign up and for further details:

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overy, Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
