

SOUTHWARK CATHEDRAL

The Fourth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 9 July 2017

An inclusive Christian community growing in orthodox faith and radical love

Welcome to Southwark Cathedral.

We are a community that seeks to enfold all people in the love of God. If you wish to speak to a priest after the service, if you wish to find a corner to pray, if you wish simply to find some peace, please feel free and welcome to do so.

Communicant members of all denominations are welcome to receive Communion at this service; please come forward as directed by the Stewards. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like a blessing, please bring the service booklet with you.

Participation. If you have been a regular at the Cathedral for six months or more, please ensure that your name is added to the Cathedral Electoral Roll - ask Stewards for details or email cathedral@southwark.anglican.org

Giving: Regular worshippers are asked to join the Planned Giving Scheme by setting up a bankers order. This greatly helps the Cathedral with financial planning. A blue form is available from the Stewards.

Visitors are asked to use the yellow envelope for their offering towards the work and worship of the Cathedral. If you are a UK taxpayer, please complete the details on the envelope to enable us to claim back the tax as Gift Aid. (Cheques to Southwark Cathedral.)

Children and young people during the 11.00am Eucharist:

Accompanied under-4s: Crèche with play mats, toys, songs and stories in the Education Centre.

Reception class to Year 3: JuniorXpress 1 in the Education Centre.

Years 4-6: JuniorXpress 2 in the Queen Elizabeth Room.

11-18s: YouthXpress 10.30am on first and third Sunday of the month in the John Trevor Williams Room.

Following the Choral Eucharist tea and coffee are served.

Listen up! Sermons delivered in the Cathedral are available as text from www.southwark.anglican.org/cathedral/sermons, where you can also find the weekly service sheet. Podcasts of sermons at Southwark Cathedral can be downloaded from iTunes by searching for Southwark Cathedral Sermons.

Stand Entrance Hymn

NEH 52

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness!
Bow down before him, his glory proclaim;
With gold of obedience, and incense of lowliness,
Kneel and adore him, the Lord is his name!

Low at his feet lay thy burden of carefulness,
High on his heart he will bear it for thee,
Comfort thy sorrows, and answer thy prayerfulness,
Guiding thy steps as may best for thee be.

Fear not to enter his courts in the slenderness
Of the poor wealth thou wouldst reckon as thine:
Truth in its beauty, and love in its tenderness,
These are the offerings to lay on his shrine.

These, though we bring them in trembling and fearfulness,
He will accept for the name that is dear;
Mornings of joy give for evenings of tearfulness,
Trust for our trembling and hope for our fear.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness!
Bow down before him, his glory proclaim;
With gold of obedience, and incense of lowliness,
Kneel and adore him, the Lord is his name!

Zechariah 9. 9–12

Read by Philip Feakin.

A reading from book of the prophet Zechariah

Rejoice greatly, O daughter Zion!
Shout aloud, O daughter Jerusalem!
Lo, your king comes to you;
triumphant and victorious is he,
humble and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
He will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the warhorse from Jerusalem;
and the battle-bow shall be cut off,
and he shall command peace to the nations;
his dominion shall be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you,
I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.
Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope;
today I declare that I will restore to you double.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 145. 8–15

Response

The Lord is righteous in all his ways.

The Lord is gracious and merciful, long-suffering and of great goodness.

The Lord is loving to everyone and his mercy is over all his creatures.

All your works praise you O Lord,
and your faithful servants bless you. R

They tell of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your mighty power,
To make known to all peoples your mighty acts and the glorious splendour of your kingdom. R

Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom;
your dominion endures throughout all ages.
The Lord is sure in all his words and faithful in all his deeds. R

The Lord upholds all those who fall and lifts up all those who are bowed down. R

Second Reading

Romans 7. 15–25a

Read by Linda Hutchinson.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree that the law is good. But in fact it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me.

So I find it to be a law that when I want to do what is good, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God in my inmost self, but I see in my members another law at war with the law of my mind, making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!

Stand Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Sentence

All the prophets and the law prophesied until John came;
and he is the Elijah who is to come;
let anyone with ears listen! Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 11. 16–19, 25–30

At that time Jesus said,

‘To what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market-places and calling to one another,
“We played the flute for you, and you did not dance;
we wailed, and you did not mourn.”

For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, “He has a demon”; the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, “Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners!” Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.’

At that time Jesus said, ‘I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

'Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.'

Offertory Anthem
O for a closer walk with God · Charles Villiers Stanford

Stand Offertory Hymn
CP 408 (tune ii)

'Come to me', says Jesus,
 'all who are distressed;
take my yoke upon you,
 I will give you rest.

I am meek and humble,
 find, with me, release
from false airs and graces;
 come, and be at peace.'

Hear the call of Jesus,
 come, be deeply blessed;
his the invitation,
 you the honoured guest.

Here, where bread is broken,
here, where wine is poured,
thankfully receive him,
find your faith restored.

Pardon, feed and heal us,
humble courteous Lord,
gracious host, for ever
honoured and adored.

Communion Anthem

○ sacrum convivium · Thomas Tallis

○ sacrum convivium in quo Christus sumitur, recolitur memoria passionis ejus, mens impletur gratia, et futurae gloriae nobis pignus datur.

O sacred banquet in which Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given to us.

Stand Final Hymn
NEH 333

All my hope on God is founded;
He doth still my trust renew.
Me through change and chance he guideth,
Only good and only true.
God unknown,
He alone
Calls my heart to be his own.

Pride of man and earthly glory,
Sword and crown betray his trust;
What with care and toil he buildeth,
Tower and temple, fall to dust.
But God's power,
Hour by hour,
Is my temple and my tower.

God's great goodness aye endureth,
Deep his wisdom, passing thought;
Splendour, light and life attend him,
Beauty springeth out of naught.
Evermore
From his store
New-born worlds rise and adore.

Daily doth th'Almighty giver
Bounteous gifts on us bestow;
His desire our soul delighteth,
Pleasure leads us where we go.
Love doth stand
At his hand;
Joy doth wait on his command.

Still from man to God eternal
Sacrifice of praise be done,
High above all praises praising
For the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call
One and all:
Ye who follow shall not fall.

Preacher The Reverend Rachel Young, Succentor

Hymn

CP 204 (tune Surrey)

○ God, by whose almighty plan first order out of chaos stirred,
and life, progressive at your word,
matured through nature up to man;
grant us in light and love to grow,
your sovereign truth to seek and know.

○ Christ, whose touch unveiled the blind,
whose presence warmed the lonely soul;
your love made broken sinners whole,
your faith cast devils from the mind.
Grant us your faith, your love, your care to bring to sufferers everywhere.

○ Holy Spirit, by whose grace
our skills abide, our wisdom grows, in every healing work disclose
new paths to probe, new thoughts to trace.
Grant us your wisest way to go in all we think, or speak, or do.

Launch of the Mothers' Union's Summer of Hope Campaign

Southwark Cathedral's Churchyard will be transformed into a summer-themed garden party with a difference when Mothers' Union launches its annual summer appeal.

After having raised £102,000 for community based projects last year this year's target is £125,000. MU is calling on its members to organise summer events large and small, garden parties, barbecues, cake sales, fêtes, raffles, afternoon teas, in support of projects that promote positive and lasting changes in communities.

Join us at Southwark Cathedral to find out about how you can get involved and to pick one of our resource packs full of ideas, information and templates that will help you to organise your event.

General Notices

Ignacio Echevarria

Ignacio is one of the victims tragically killed in the attack in our parish on 3 June 2017. He worked for HBSC Bank as an analyst at offices in Park Street. His colleagues from all over the world have been remembering him and thinking about how they can honour him. HSBC has donated to various charities to help with the recent attacks but it has also set up a “Just Giving” page (justgiving.com/crowdfunding/inmemory-ignacioecheverria) in the hope of raising £100k for the Spanish Christian association, Misioneros Combonianos, which raises money for education projects in Africa and was particularly close to Ignacio’s heart. It will also give out an employee contribution award each year, dedicated to his name. We wanted to share with you these acts of love and kindness in the face of the tragedy and pain that the attacks have inflicted. We continue to pray for him, his family and all those affected.

Congratulations to Paul Timms who, on 4 July, celebrated 25 years as Head Verger at Southwark Cathedral. We thank him, and the team he leads, for all that they do to enable the Cathedral to be the place of worship and welcome that we know it to be.

RIP Canon Roy White

Roy White, who was Vice Provost and Precentor from 1991 until 1999, died peacefully last week. We remember his ministry with great joy and thanksgiving. There will be a Memorial Service in the Cathedral to celebrate his life and ministry. As soon as the date is known we will publicise it. May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

Doorkins the Cathedral Cat

by Lisa Gutwein, illustrated by Rowan Ambrose. Published by Jessica Kingsley Books. Available from Sunday 20 August.

Our forthcoming children’s book which is written, illustrated and published by members of the congregation, is now available to pre-order from the Cathedral Shop for the special price of £9.99. Please visit the Shop for further information or to order copies in advance.

Food Bank

Weekly sessions of the Waterloo Foodbank are running at St George the Martyr Church at Borough on Mondays, 9.30–11.30am. If you would like to be involved and could spare a couple of hours please contact mm@marionmarples.co.uk.

Food donations can be brought to the Cathedral Shop. Current needs: tinned vegetables, tinned meats, tinned fruit, small packs cereals.

London Historians – Membership Offer

Do you enjoy the history of Southwark as much as London Historians? If so, you may want to join us. But who are we? London Historians is an association which explores and shares the history of our great city through regular newsletters, events and meetings. Founded in 2010, we have 600 Members and many thousands of followers on social media. There are professors among our number, for sure, but while London Historians has expert members its main focus is the enthusiast who loves London.

We'd like to offer the congregation and Friends of wonderful Southwark Cathedral a £10 saving when you join London Historians, from £39 to £29 per year. Please use this hidden web page to sign up and for further details: londonhistorians.org/southwark

Bells

On Saturday 1 July Edward Gormley attended bell-ringing practice at St Clement Danes, St James' Garlickhythe and St Mary's Rotherhithe. Our erstwhile Deputy Team Leader for Cathedral event stewards found himself ringing in three of London's great and ancient bell towers all in one day.

Evacuation and security

The Chapter is always concerned for the safety of all who come to the Cathedral for any reason. The Stewards are fully trained in evacuation procedures and, should any incident occur, you are asked to follow their instructions. In the light of recent events we ask that all in the Cathedral act responsibly with regard to bags and possessions and not leave anything unattended.

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overy, Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
