NEH 137

Come down, O Love divine,
Seek thou this soul of mine,
And visit it with thine own ardour glowing;
O Comforter, draw near,
Within my heart appear,
And kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn,
Till earthly passions turn
To dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
And let thy glorious light
Shine ever on my sight,
And clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

Let holy charity
Mine outward vesture be,
And lowliness become mine inner clothing;
True lowliness of heart,
Which takes the humbler part,
And o'er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong,
With which the soul will long,
Shall far outpass the power of human telling;
For none can guess its grace,
Till he become the place
Wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

Italian, Bianco da Siena

Sit      First Reading

Isaiah 55. 10–13

Read by Malcolm Baines.

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord:

As the rain and the snow come down from heaven,
and do not return there until they have watered the earth,
making it bring forth and sprout,
giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater,
so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth;
it shall not return to me empty,
but it shall accomplish that which I purpose,
and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

For you shall go out in joy,
and be led back in peace;
the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song,
and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress;
instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle;
and it shall be to the Lord for a memorial,
for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 65. 8–13

You tend the earth and wa-ter it: you make it rich_and fer-tile.

Response

You tend the earth and water it: you make it rich and fertile.

You visit the earth and water it;
you make it very plenteous.

The river of God is full of water; you prepare grain for your people, for so you provide for the earth. R

You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges;
you soften the ground with showers and bless its increase.
You crown the year with your goodness,
and your paths overflow with plenty. R

May the pastures of the wilderness flow with goodness and the hills be girded with joy.

May the meadows be clothed with flocks of sheep and the valleys stand so thick with corn that they shall laugh and sing. R

Second Reading

Romans 8. 1–11

Read by Joan Squires-Lind.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law—indeed it cannot, and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit that dwells in you.

Stand    Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Sentence

Blessed are your eyes, for they see, says the Lord, and your ears, for they hear.

Gospel

Matthew 13. 1–9, 18–23

Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the lake. Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. And he told them many things in parables, saying: 'Listen! A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Let anyone with ears listen!'

'Hear then the parable of the sower. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.'

Sit

Sermon

Canon Michael Rawson, Sub Dean

Chorale Prelude

'Dies sind die heil'gen zehn Gebot' (BWV 678) · Johann Sebastian Bach

After the Creed the president invites everyone to sit.

The Sub Dean moves to the top step and invites the new Warden to stand before him. The Sub Dean says

The office of churchwarden is a venerable one, having been given legal recognition in England in the 13th Century. Wardens are elected by the parish at the Annual Parochial Church Meeting to work with the Dean and Chapter in the governance and care of the Cathedral and our ministry to the people of this parish and those who worship here.

Daniel Chumbley, you have been recognised by this congregation as a person of good standing, prayerful and wise, and have been elected to serve as a Warden of this Cathedral and Collegiate Church. Are you willing to take on this responsibility?

Warden *With God's help I am.

Will you perform your duties with diligence and care?

Warden *With God's help I will.

Will you work with your fellow Warden, Matthew, to ensure that in this place God's will is done and his kingdom advanced?

Warden *With God's help I will.

In the name of God and of this congregation I welcome you as a Warden of this Cathedral and Parish and give you your badge of office as a token of your ministry.

The Sub Dean places the Warden's jewel around Daniel's neck. He then takes the Warden by the hand and leads him to the Warden's stall in the Quire of the Cathedral, and says

Daniel, I place you in your stall as a Warden of this Cathedral and Collegiate Church, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

O Eternal God, the foundation of all wisdom and the source of all courage; enlighten with your grace your servants Matthew and Daniel and all the members of the Chapter of this Cathedral and so rule their minds and guide their thoughts that in all things they may seek your glory and promote the mission of your Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Though I speak with the tongues of men · Edward Bairstow

Stand    Offertory Hymn
NEH 315 (tune I49 ii)

Word of the Father, source of all things living,
Word once made flesh, our true and only Saviour,
Grow in our hearts, O seed of heaven's harvest,
    Jesus, Redeemer.

Gospel from heaven, living Word incarnate,
Open our minds, Lord, teach us your true wisdom;
Lamp to our footsteps, scatter all our darkness,
    Day-star of glory.

Lord of the faithful, guide us on our journey;
Pilgrims, we hunger for the life of heaven;
Jesus, our manna, feed us with your goodness,
    Here and hereafter.

George B Timms

Stand    Eucharistic Prayer
Prayer G

Communion Anthem

O taste and see · Ralph Vaughan Williams

Stand Final Hymn
NEH 476

Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad his wonderful name:
The name all-victorious of Jesus extol:
His kingdom is glorious, and rules over all.

God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
And still he is nigh, his presence we have:
The great congregation his triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus our King.

Salvation to God who sits on the throne!
Let all cry aloud, and honour the Son:
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces, and worship the Lamb.

Then let us adore, and give him his right:
All glory and power, all wisdom and might,
All honour and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never-ceasing, and infinite love.

Ignacio Echevarria

Ignacio is one of the victims tragically killed in the attack in our parish on 3 June 2017. He worked for HBSC Bank as an analyst at offices in Park Street. His colleagues from all over the world have been remembering him and thinking about how they can honour him. HSBC has donated to various charities to help with the recent attacks but it has also set up a “Just Giving” page (justgiving.com/crowdfunding/inmemory-ignacioecheverria) in the hope of raising £100k for the Spanish Christian association, Misioneros Combonianos, which raises money for education projects in Africa and was particularly close to Ignacio’s heart. It will also give out an employee contribution award each year, dedicated to his name. We wanted to share with you these acts of love and kindness in the face of the tragedy and pain that the attacks have inflicted. We continue to pray for him, his family and all those affected.

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overy, Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
