distinction of being the first 'gothic' church to be built in London and much of that early work can still be seen in the choir and retro-choir of the present church.

All services are open to the public, details of which are on page 7.

Early in 2001 a northern "cloister" was opened by Nelson Mandela where once the monastic cloister stood. There is a shop which sells a range of books, cards, gifts, and souvenirs that relate to the Cathedral's history. There is also a Refectory/Restuarant which sells or hot and cold meals, sandwiches, cakes, teas, coffees and cold drinks. The complex also houses a library and conference rooms. The churchyard has been landscaped as a green space at the heart of the city.

We are committed to

- WORSHIP in this holy place
 - GOSPEL values in all we do
 - WELCOME and respect for all people, serving them in the name of Jesus Christ
