LENT AND HOLY WEEK INSTALLATIONS

5 March-19 April

Angela Wright

A wool installation made from a huge amount of spun wool will be suspended in the vicinity of the high altar. Look up at its mass and the spillage of its thousands of wavy strands tumbling down to the stone floor, its colour, smell and softness will engage with the senses.

Edmund de Waal

A series of twelve towers containing a single vessel, stand in the retrochoir. These towers are hidden behind the vast altar screen, but if you look hard, you can glimpse them through the sanctuary doors. Pause, stand still and listen in this vast building, contemplate the changing light and shadow of the space and to reflect on a thousand years of liturgy.

London Life:

Characters and Places

Artist couple Sally Cutler and Euan Cunningham have created an exhibition of original linocuts and ink drawings inspired by the great city they live in - London. Sally produces limited edition linocut portraits of contemporary Londoners with old lead type printed descriptions of their connection to the region. Euan creates ink drawings with fresh perspectives on familiar buildings and unusual architectural remnants from the past.

LIVING GOD

LIVING GOD LIVING WORD LIVING PRAYER

Our Living God programme, which began in September, continues between New Year and Easter with a focus on how our understanding of God finds expression in our spiritual life and discipleship.

PRAYING THE BIBLE

Saturday 1 February

10.00am-1.00pm

This is a morning conference for the whole Cathedral community to consider together how we use the Bible in prayer. We will be looking at the psalms, lectio divina and other ways in which Bible reading turns into prayer. This will lead into a series of sessions on further aspects of praying with the Bible, each from 10.30am-12 noon.

Saturday 8 February

Prayer in lament with Canon Gilly Myers

Saturday 15 February

Prayer of asking with Canon Bruce Saunders

SPIRITUAL CONVERSATIONS

Members of the congregation are offered the opportunity for a conversation with one of the Cathedral clergy about their own spiritual life and how this might best develop and grow. These will be one-off sessions lasting 50 minutes each, and will take place between 24 March and 12 April. Details of how to book will be made available in February.

GOD, WELLBEING, AND THE SPIRITUAL QUEST TODAY

4-6 April

Residential Retreat

St Cuthman's Retreat House, Horsham

Matters of the spirit are as much a part of being human as matters of body and mind. Having a spiritual perspective, being informed by spiritual experience and nurtured by spiritual practices is central to our flourishing. And yet today, in a world that values material wellbeing above all else, it is often hard to cultivate this side of life. This two day silent retreat is a chance to explore and reflect upon the resources and practical wisdom within Christianity and other traditions that aim to 'fill out as fully as possible human experience,' as Rowan Williams has put it. Drawing on the insights of psychology and philosophy as well as Christian spiritual traditions, the retreat will be structured by collective and private worship led by Canon Leanne Roberts, and a series of addresses by writer and broadcaster, Mark Vernon.

LIVING GOD HOLY WEEK

Moving deeper into Love:

The Passion and Creative Reflection

This Holy Week we will be hosting four concurrent non-residential retreats focussing on how our spirituality finds expression through various forms of creativity. These will take place at the Cathedral at different times of the day, and will be interspersed with the Holy Week liturgies. These four 'strands' are as follows:

Iconography

Creative Writing

Serves Me Right To Suffer:

The Passion, The Gospel and The Blues

Online interactive retreat

The great three days of Holy Week from Maundy Thursday to Easter Day will draw together these strands of creativity and members of the clergy team will be preaching and reflecting at the liturgies on those days.

Places on some of these retreats will be limited and booking will be opened in February; places will be allocated on a first-come-first-served basis.
