Volunteering Opportunities

June 2017

Southwark Cathedral is a diverse community whose members participate in its mission and ministry in a host of ways. More than 450 volunteers play their part in the day-to-day life of the Cathedral. New volunteers are most welcome and volunteering vacancies are advertised on the cathedral website under southwarkcathedral.org.uk/community/volunteers and in the weekly notice sheet. Tours and Visitors

Welcome Desk Volunteer

The Welcome Desk is the point where all visitors who enter the Cathedral are greeted within the context of the Cathedral Chapter's "Ministry of Welcome". We are looking for volunteers to provide a warm and friendly welcome to every person visiting the Cathedral, demonstrating sensitivity to the variety of visitor needs. While no formal skills and qualifications are needed for this role, we do ask that volunteers are able to offer a warm, friendly welcome to all visitors and maintain a calm and professional disposition even in stressful situations. This opportunity would suit someone who wishes to volunteer in a setting that supports a historic London landmark, has or wants to gain experience of volunteering in tourism.

We are looking for a team of volunteers to help throughout the week, committing to either a half-day or whole day, weekly or fortnightly on a set day.

Welcomers

Welcomers are part of the public face of the Cathedral. They welcome visitors and look after groups during the times when the Cathedral is open to visitors and there are no services taking place. They work closely with Guides, Day Chaplains and Stewards. Training is given. Welcomers should have a friendly, outgoing personality and be good with the public.

They must also be aware of its pastoral and religious role. They need also to be aware of the other visitor and tourist attractions in the immediate area. Detailed training is provided. Guides should have a friendly, outgoing personality and be good with the public.

We would love to hear from anybody who would like to volunteer in our busy Cathedral shop. Ideally you would be able to commit three hours a week, or alternate weeks, on a set day. No experience required and full training is provided but you should be confident handling money and be able to learn to use an electronic till system competently. The shop is open seven days a week: Sunday 10.00am to 4.00pm and Monday to Saturday 10.00am to 5.30pm.

In and around our services

Hospitality Team

This is a good way to start volunteering if you are new to the Cathedral as you will meet many members of the congregation when they come for coffee. The time commitment is one Sunday a month and you will be working in a team of four people. The team starts at 10.00am making and serving coffee and soft drinks for the choir before the main 11.00am Sunday service and for the congregation after it. Then they clear and wash up and finish at about 1.30pm. Team members are free to take part in the service.

Bellringers

The Southwark Cathedral Society of Bellringers ring for the main services at the Cathedral and for weddings, memorial services, and other special occasions. Practices are on a Wednesday evening from 6.30pm until 8.30pm.

The 12 bells are historic, heavy, and hard to ring and only experienced ringers can ring them. Although the Cathedral Bellringers do not teach novices to ring they have links with other towers locally and can offer advice on where to go to learn. The Bellringers compete with other bands at the highest level in the National 12-bell competition.

The Guild of Stewards

Stewards help manage the movement of people at the Cathedral during services and special occasions. A team of stewards is on duty for most services.

Stewards should be welcoming and sensitive to the needs of the congregation and visitors. They should attend the Cathedral regularly. They work closely with the clergy and vergers to make sure that everyone is welcomed and that the services run smoothly.

A one-day training course is given and new stewards then shadow in a team to gain experience.
