Entrance Hymn

NEH 148

The God of Abraham praise
Who reigns enthroned above,
Ancient of everlasting days,
And God of love:
To him uplift your voice,
At whose supreme command
From earth we rise and seek the joys
At his right hand.

Before the Saviour's face
The ransomed nations bow,
O'erwhelmed at his almighty grace
For ever new:
He shows the prints of love –
They kindle to a flame,
And sound through all the worlds above
The slaughtered Lamb.

The God who reigns on high
The great archangels sing,
And 'Holy, holy, holy' cry
 'Almighty King!
Who was, and is the same,
And evermore shall be:
Eternal Father, great I AM,
 We worship thee.'

The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high:
'Hail, Father, Son and Holy Ghost'
 They ever cry:
Hail, Abraham's God and mine!
(I join the heavenly lays)
All might and majesty are thine,
 And endless praise.

Thomas Olivers

Sit First Reading
Genesis 14. 17–20

Read by Odette Penwarden.

A reading from the book of Genesis.

After Abram's return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley). And King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High. He blessed him and said,

 'Blessed be Abram by God Most High,
 maker of heaven and earth;
 and blessed be God Most High,
 who has delivered your enemies into your hand!'
And Abram gave him one-tenth of everything.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 128

Blessed are all those who fear the Lord, and walk in his ways.

You shall eat the fruit of the toil of your hands;
it shall go well with you and happy shall you be. R

Your wife within your house shall be like a fruitful vine;
your children round your table like fresh olive branches.

Thus shall the one be blest who fears the Lord. R

The Lord from out of Zion bless you, that you may see Jerusalem in prosperity all the days of your life.

May you see your children's children and may there be peace upon Israel. R

Second Reading

Revelation 19. 6–10

Read by Amuda Poongavanam.

A reading from the book of Revelation.

I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty thunder-peals, crying out, ‘Hallelujah!

For the Lord our God
the Almighty reigns.

Let us rejoice and exult
and give him the glory,

for the marriage of the Lamb has come,
and his bride has made herself ready;

to her it has been granted to be clothed with fine linen, bright and pure’— for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.

And the angel said to me, 'Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.' And he said to me, 'These are true words of God.' Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, 'You must not do that! I am a fellow-servant with you and your comrades who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.'

Stand Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Sentence

Jesus went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the good news in the kingdom.

Gospel

John 2. 1–11

There was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.' Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

CP 341 (tune NEH 162 Melita)

At Cana's wedding, long ago, they knew his presence by his sign,
a virtue none but Christ could show,
to turn their water into wine:

And still on us his blessing be as in the days of Galilee.

What if the way be far to go and life at times a weary load?
yet may our hearts within us glow
as theirs on that Emmaus road:

The risen Christ become our guest,
with him to walk, in him to rest.

○ Lord of all our life below,
○ risen Lord of realms above,
eternal joy be theirs to know,
united in the bond of love:

One in the faith, with one accord,
one with each other and the Lord.

Stand Final Hymn
NEH 272

All for Jesus! all for Jesus!
This our song shall ever be;
For we have no hope nor Saviour
If we have not hope in thee.

All for Jesus! thou wilt give us
Strength to serve thee hour by hour:
None can move us from thy presence
While we trust thy love and power.

All for Jesus! at thine altar
Thou dost give us sweet content;
There, dear saviour, we receive thee
In thy holy sacrament.

All for Jesus! thou has loved us,
All for Jesus! thou hast died,
All for Jesus! thou art with us,
All for Jesus, glorified!

All for Jesus! All for Jesus!
This the Church's song shall be,
Till at last the flock is gathered
One in love, and one in thee.

We rely on our volunteers to cook, welcome and support our guests on the night. Please contact Marlene Collins if you are interested, mcollins16@sky.com. We are still short of some practical items that many of us take for granted. Please help make our guests' stay more comfortable by donating men's deodorants and toothpaste (small sizes), toothbrushes, disposable razors and shaving foam. Please bring items to the Cathedral before the end of January and leave for Neil Tryner, Amanda Hill or Marlene Collins – and many thanks for your generous help.

The Southwark Cathedral Organ Console Restoration (2017)

Although the Lewis organ at Southwark Cathedral dates from 1897 the original console was destroyed and the current console installed by Willis III in 1952.

Although some minor work was done in 1986 many of its components had not been renewed and were becoming increasingly tired and unreliable – certainly no longer able to support the comprehensive and expanding musical ministry of the Cathedral and its Choirs.

The ivory key-coverings were still in good condition but significant wear was evident in the manual keyboards and pedal board. After so many years of heavy use the time had come for new keyboards, transferring the old ivory. The pedal board was given a major overhaul and new contacts fitted throughout the console. New thumb piston units were installed but the existing piston heads, stop knobs and couplers tabs were retained where possible. The opportunity to reposition some of the stop jamps was taken to give a more conventional layout and the console woodwork and jamb plates were stripped and refinished.

Some of the organists' performance aids were also upgraded and improved, not least the memory systems which now use the latest digital technology, and one new coupler was added: Great to Solo. All cabling was renewed throughout the console.

The work (August – November 2017) was undertaken by the firm of Harrison and Harrison of Durham who had been responsible for the comprehensive and much acclaimed 1991 restoration of the instrument and who has maintained the instrument since the 1980s. The console work was made possible by a generous legacy from Joan Worker and has put this magnificent organ into first-class working order to ensure its continued reliability for future generations.

Nativity Figures

Our crib features nativity figures which were created by the children on Tuesday 5 December, when over 230 pupils from Diocesan schools visited the Cathedral for the Education Centre's Journey to the Manger.

Throughout the day, the children visited a series of stations where they explored the nativity story from the perspectives of different characters.

Evacuation and security

The Chapter is always concerned for the safety of all who come to the Cathedral for any reason. The Stewards are fully trained in evacuation procedures and, should any incident occur, you are asked to follow their instructions. In the light of recent events we ask that all in the Cathedral act responsibly with regard to bags and possessions and not leave anything unattended.

Parents are requested that in case of an emergency evacuation it is best to leave buggies where they are. This is in line with best practice.

Waterloo Food Bank News

Thank you to all the people who generously bring contributions for the food bank to the Cathedral Shop.

News from Masvingo Diocese

At this season of goodwill and peace to all people, please pray for our brothers and sisters in Masvingo, Zimbabwe. There is still hope that the recent regime change may represent a new beginning, despite its close connection to the Mugabe era. Yet news has reached us that a minibus full of people in the diocese of Masvingo has been shot at for no apparent reason, and a beer festival in the area interrupted by members of the army who apparently randomly assaulted people - painful reminders of life under the old order. Please continue to pray that a proper democracy will be established and that people will be able to lead their lives in peace and without fear.

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overie Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
