

SOUTHWARK CATHEDRAL

The Fourth Sunday of Epiphany

Sunday 28 January 2017

An inclusive Christian community growing in orthodox faith and radical love

Welcome to Southwark Cathedral.

We are a community that seeks to enfold all people in the love of God. If you wish to speak to a priest after the service, if you wish to find a corner to pray, if you wish simply to find some peace, please feel free and welcome to do so.

Communicant members of all denominations are welcome to receive Communion at this service; please come forward as directed by the Stewards. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like a blessing, please bring the service booklet with you.

Participation. If you have been a regular at the Cathedral for six months or more, please ensure that your name is added to the Cathedral Electoral Roll - ask Stewards for details or email cathedral@southwark.anglican.org

Giving: Regular worshippers are asked to join the Planned Giving Scheme by setting up a bankers order. This greatly helps the Cathedral with financial planning. A blue form is available from the Stewards.

Visitors are asked to use the yellow envelope for their offering towards the work and worship of the Cathedral. If you are a UK taxpayer, please complete the details on the envelope to enable us to claim back the tax as Gift Aid. (Cheques to Southwark Cathedral.)

Children and young people during the 11.00am Eucharist:

Accompanied under-4s: Crèche with play mats, toys, songs and stories in the Education Centre.

Reception class to Year 3: JuniorXpress 1 in the Education Centre.

Years 4-6: JuniorXpress 2 in the Queen Elizabeth Room.

11-18s: YouthXpress 10.30am on second and fourth Sunday of the month in the John Trevor Williams Room.

Following the Choral Eucharist tea and coffee are served.

Listen up! Sermons delivered in the Cathedral are available as text from <http://southwarkcathedral.org.uk/worship-and-music/worship/sermons/>, where you can also find the weekly service sheet. They can also be downloaded as from iTunes by searching for Southwark Cathedral Sermons.

Entrance Hymn

CP 434 (tune Warrington NEH 428)

Give to our God immortal praise;
mercy and truth are all his ways:
wonders of grace to God belong,
repeat his mercies in your song.

Give to the Lord of lords renown,
the King of kings with glory crown:
his mercies ever shall endure
when lords and kings are known no more.

He sent his Son with power to save from guilt and darkness and the grave:
wonders of grace to God belong,
repeat his mercies in your song.

Through this vain world he guides our feet,
and leads us to his heavenly seat:
his mercies ever shall endure
when this vain world shall be no more.

Isaac Watts

Sit First Reading
Deuteronomy 18. 15–20

Read by Caroline Bennett.

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

Moses spoke to the people:

“The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. This is what you requested of the Lord your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: ‘If I hear the voice of the Lord my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die.’ Then the Lord replied to me: ‘They are right in what they have said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak—that prophet shall die.’”

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm III

Response I will praise the Lord with my whole – heart.

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart,
in the company of the faithful and in the congregation.
The works of the Lord are great, sought out by all who delight in them. R

His work is full of majesty and honour and his righteousness endures for ever.
He appointed a memorial for his marvellous deeds;
the Lord is gracious and full of compassion. R

He gave food to those who feared him;
he is ever mindful of his covenant.
He showed his people the power of his works in giving them the heritage of the nations. R

The works of his hands are truth and justice;
all his commandments are sure.
They stand fast for ever and ever;
they are done in truth and equity.

He sent redemption to his people; he commanded his covenant for ever;
holy and awesome is his name.
The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
a good understanding have those who live by it; his praise endures for ever. R

Second Reading

Revelation 12. 1–5a

Read by Morag Todd.

A reading from the book of Revelation.

A great portent appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was pregnant and was crying out in birth pangs, in the agony of giving birth. Then another portent appeared in heaven: a great red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. His tail swept down a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman who was about to bear a child, so that he might devour her child as soon as it was born. And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron.

Stand Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Sentence

Jesus was attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders and signs.

Gospel

Mark I. 21–28

The disciples went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 'What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.' But Jesus rebuked him, saying, 'Be silent, and come out of him!' And the unclean spirit, throwing him into convulsions and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, 'What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.' At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

NEH 374

How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
 In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
 And drives away his fear.

It makes the wounded spirit whole,
 And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
 And to the weary rest.

Dear name! the rock on which I build,
 My shield and hiding-place,
My never-failing treasury filled
 With boundless stores of grace.

Jesus! my Shepherd, Brother, Friend,
 My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
 Accept the praise I bring.

Weak is the effort of my heart,
 And cold my warmest thought;
But when I see thee as thou art,
 I'll praise thee as I ought.

Till then I would thy love proclaim
 With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of thy name
 Refresh my soul in death.

Stand Final Hymn

CP 437 (tune NEH 186 Woodlands)

Go forth and tell! O Church of God, awake!
God's saving news to all the nations, take:
proclaim Christ Jesus, Saviour, Lord, and King, that all the world his glorious praise may sing.

Go forth and tell! God's love embraces all,
he will in grace respond to all who call:
how shall they call if they have never heard the gracious invitation of his word?

Go forth and tell! The doors are open wide:
share God's good gifts – let no one be denied;
live out your life as Christ your Lord shall choose,
your ransomed powers for his sole glory use.

Go forth and tell! O Church of God, arise!
Go in the strength which Christ your Lord supplies;
go till all nations his great name adore and serve him, Lord and King for evermore.

CP 321

Rise and hear! The Lord is speaking, as the gospel words unfold;
we, in all our agelong seeking,
find no firmer truth to hold.

Word of goodness, truth, and beauty, heard by simple folk and wise,
word of freedom, word of duty,
word of life beyond our eyes.

Word of God's forgiveness granted to the wild or guilty soul, word of love that works undaunted, changes, heals, and makes us whole.

Speak to us, O Lord, believing,
as we hear, the sower sows;
may our hearts, your word receiving,
be the good ground where it grows.

Weekend Retreat:

Jesu, thou art all compassion

This retreat, offered by the Spiritual Association of the Compassionate Hearts of Jesus and Mary, and set in the context of silence, invites you to Ascot Priory to enter into the heart of God through different perspectives – the Heart of the Father; the Heart in Silence; the Heart of Compassion, the Heart's Gaze and the Heart's Softener.

There will be a celebration of the Eucharist and half-an-hour of Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament for communal silent prayer each day but no expectation that you should take part – just a hope.

For more information on what to expect, the proposed programme and a booking link, please visit cchjm.org/compassion-retreat-2018/

Choir Chaperones

The Cathedral is looking to recruit a team of Choir Chaperones to support the music department staff in their work with the choirs and to provide supervision of choristers before, during and after rehearsals and services. You should have experience of working with groups of young people, be friendly and approachable, with a good sense of humour, able to relate well to young people between the ages of 7 and 17 and deal with unexpected situations calmly. Please visit pathways.churchofengland.org/jobs/job/Choir-Chaperones/353 for more information and for details on how to apply.

Cathedral Website

Many of you will have noticed our new Cathedral website and hopefully agree that it is a great improvement on the one it replaced. The new site was launched just before Advent last year and we are tremendously grateful to the Cathedral Friends who funded the entire cost. The Friends also paid for a substantial amount of new photography so that we could illustrate the site with a rich collection of images of our daily life, our historic building and our festivals and special events. We are also very grateful to Jon Dollin and Ruth Miller in our visitor services team for the huge amount of work they undertook creating the site and working on the new content. The new website can be found at cathedral.southwark.anglican.org/

Cathedrals Working Group

You may be aware that the Archbishops' Council, following the Visitations at both Peterborough and Exeter Cathedrals, established a Working Group to examine, as a matter of urgency, the issues of governance and financial controls as they affect all cathedrals. The draft report was published on 18 January, and can be read online at churchofengland.org/about/our-cathedrals/cathedrals-working-group. A couple of copies are also available from the Cathedral Reception in Montague Chambers.

The Chair of the Working Party, the Bishop of Stepney, has asked that each Chapter consult the following groups:

- Members of Chapter, including Residentiary Canons
- Any other clergy licensed to the cathedral
- Senior lay staff including the head of finance and safeguarding officer
- Members of the College of Canons
- Members of the Cathedral Council
- Trustees and staff of any development or fundraising body associated with the cathedral
- Members of the FAC
- Friends Groups
- Representatives of cathedral volunteers

The Chapter has decided that the best way we can achieve this, given that responses are needed before the end of 28 February, is to arrange two meetings. One of these will be for the Chapter and Council but the other is for the congregation as we believe it is important to hear your views. Members of the cathedral congregation are therefore invited to an open meeting on Sunday 11 February at 12.30pm. This will take place in the Garry Weston Library.

Following the meetings Canon Michael Rawson and Mr Peter Haddock (a lay member of Chapter) will prepare a response from the Chapter on behalf of the Cathedral. However, you are welcome to make individual or group responses to the Working Group. We hope that, where possible, we can make one response.

Waterloo Food Bank News

Thank you to all the people who generously bring contributions for the food bank to the Cathedral Shop.

Current Food Needs

Tinned meats (eg stew), UHT full cream milk, fruit juice, tinned vegetables and fruit, tinned puddings, teabags, instant coffee, hot chocolate.

Tea & Toast

We now offer tea/coffee and toast to those who call by at St George the Martyr on Monday morning.

A Tale of Two Southwarks: exhibition of mixed media art by Suchi Chidambaram and John Pheasant at Roast Restaurant, Borough Market (until April). Works include last year's The Grand Iftar at the cathedral and pictures of local residents.

Mission Allocation 2017

The Mission Allocation Group is inviting suggestions from members of the congregation regarding the charities that Southwark Cathedral should be supporting financially from the 2017 offerings. We are looking for a spread of charities that, between them, cover the areas of work described by the five marks of Anglican Mission:

- To proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom
- To teach, baptise and nurture new believers
- To respond to human need by loving service
- To seek to transform unjust structures of society, to challenge violence of every kind and to pursue peace and reconciliation
- To strive to safeguard the integrity of creation and sustain and renew the life of the earth

Submissions must be made in writing on a nomination form, including your name and contact details, the name of the charity, the Charity Number, website address and a statement that they have a safeguarding policy. Further supporting material is also helpful, and any personal connections you might have with the charity.

Nomination forms can be found in the Mission Allocation pigeon hole. Please return completed forms to Julie Dyg via the Vergers by Friday 16 March 2018.

Nativity Figures

Our crib features nativity figures which were created by the children on Tuesday 5 December, when over 230 pupils from Diocesan schools visited the Cathedral for the Education Centre's Journey to the Manger.

Throughout the day, the children visited a series of stations where they explored the nativity story from the perspectives of different characters.

Evacuation and security

The Chapter is always concerned for the safety of all who come to the Cathedral for any reason. The Stewards are fully trained in evacuation procedures and, should any incident occur, you are asked to follow their instructions. In the light of recent events we ask that all in the Cathedral act responsibly with regard to bags and possessions and not leave anything unattended.

Parents are requested that in case of an emergency evacuation it is best to leave buggies where they are. This is in line with best practice.

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overie Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
