

SOUTHWARK CATHEDRAL

The Second Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 10 June 2018

An inclusive Christian community growing in orthodox faith and radical love

Welcome to Southwark Cathedral.

We are a community that seeks to enfold all people in the love of God. If you wish to speak to a priest after the service, if you wish to find a corner to pray, if you wish simply to find some peace, please feel free and welcome to do so.

Communicant members of all denominations are welcome to receive Communion at this service; please come forward as directed by the Stewards. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like a blessing, please bring the service booklet with you.

Participation. If you have been a regular at the Cathedral for six months or more, please ensure that your name is added to the Cathedral Electoral Roll – ask Stewards for details or email cathedral@southwark.anglican.org

Giving: Regular worshippers are asked to join the Planned Giving Scheme by setting up a bankers order. This greatly helps the Cathedral with financial planning. A blue form is available from the Stewards.

Visitors are asked to use the yellow envelope for their offering towards the work and worship of the Cathedral. If you are a UK taxpayer, please complete the details on the envelope to enable us to claim back the tax as Gift Aid. (Cheques to Southwark Cathedral.)

Children and young people during the 11.00am Eucharist:

Accompanied under-4s: Crèche with play mats, toys, songs and stories in the Education Centre.

Reception class to Year 3: JuniorXpress 1 in the Education Centre.

Years 4-6: JuniorXpress 2 in the Queen Elizabeth Room.

11-18s: YouthXpress 10.30am on second and fourth Sunday of the month in the John Trevor Williams Room.

Following the Choral Eucharist tea and coffee are served.

E Newsletter

Southwark Cathedral would love to keep you posted with Cathedral news, services and events as well as contacting you occasionally to participate in audience research to help inform our activities.

Entrance Hymn

NEH 439

Praise to the Holiest in the height,

And in the depth be praise,

In all his words most wonderful,

Most sure in all his ways.

O loving wisdom of our God!

When all was sin and shame,

A second Adam to the fight

And to the rescue came.

O wisest love! that flesh and blood,

Which did in Adam fail,

Should strive afresh against their foe,

Should strive and should prevail;

And in the garden secretly,
And on the cross on high,
Should teach his brethren, and inspire
To suffer and to die.

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise,
In all his words most wonderful,
Most sure in all his ways.

John Henry Newman

First Reading
Genesis 3. 8–15

Read by Ellah Kyembe.

A reading from the book of Genesis.

The man and the woman heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man, and said to him, ‘Where are you?’ He said, ‘I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.’ He said, ‘Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?’ The man said, ‘The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate.’ Then the Lord God said to the woman, ‘What is this that you have done?’ The woman said, ‘The serpent tricked me, and I ate.’ The Lord God said to the serpent,

‘Because you have done this,
cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures;
upon your belly you shall go,
and dust you shall eat all the days of your life.
I will put enmity between you and the woman,
and between your offspring and hers;
he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel.’

All

This is the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 130

At the beginning the response is played by the organist, sung by the choir and then sung by the congregation. It is sung once by all at R below.

Out of the depths have I cried to you O Lord. Lord hear my voice;
let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.
If you Lord were to mark what is done amiss,
O Lord who could stand? R

But there is forgiveness with you so that you shall be feared.
I wait for the Lord, my soul waits for him in his word is my hope.
My soul waits for the Lord more than the night watch for the morning, more than the night watch for the morning. R

O Israel wait for the Lord,
for with the Lord there is mercy;
With him is plenteous redemption and he shall redeem Israel from all their sins. R

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 4. 13 – 5.1

Read by Nnewima Nwafor-Orizu.

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Corinthians

Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—
'I believed, and so I spoke'—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

All This is the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Stand Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Sentence

If it is by the Spirit of God I cast out demons, says the Lord, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

Gospel

Mark 3. 20–35

The crowd came together again, so that Jesus and his companions could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, ‘He has gone out of his mind.’ And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, ‘He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons.’ And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, ‘How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

‘Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin’— for they had said, ‘He has an unclean spirit.’

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, 'Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.' And he replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking at those who sat around him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.'

Offertory Hymn

CP 328 (tune Carlisle NEH 178)

The Son of God proclaim,
the Lord of time and space;
the God who bade the light break forth
now shines in Jesus' face.

He, God's creative Word,
the church's Lord and Head,
here bids us gather as his friends and share his wine and bread.

The Lord of life and death with wond'ring praise we sing;
we break the bread at his command and name him God and King.

We take this cup in hope;
for he, who gladly bore
the shameful cross, is risen again and reigns for evermore.

Basil E Bridge

Stand     Eucharistic Prayer
Prayer B

Communion Anthem

Lord, for thy tender mercies' sake · John Hilton

Stand     Final Hymn
CP 375

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come:
'tis grace that brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me,
his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.

Yes, when this heart and flesh shall fail,
and mortal life shall cease:
I shall possess, within the veil,
a life of joy and peace.

When we've been there a thousand years
bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise
than when we first begun.

John Newton

To mark the release of his new publication Southwark Cathedral and publisher Penguin Random House are delighted to host this talk by Ndaba Mandela, grandson of Nelson Mandela.

In Going to the Mountain, Ndaba Mandela shares the story of his coming-of-age alongside South Africa’s rebirth. It is a remarkable journey, and one that took him from the violent, segregated Soweto ghettos to his grandfather's presidential home. From Nelson Mandela, Ndaba learned the spirit of endurance, the triumph of forgiveness, the power of resistance and the beauty of reconciliation.

Ndaba Mandela is the co-founder and co-chairman of the Africa Rising Foundation, an organization dedicated to promoting a positive image of Africa around the world and to increasing its potential for growth in the areas of education, employment and international corporate alliances. Ndaba serves as an executive director for UN AIDS, which seeks to end discrimination around HIV/AIDS. He is also the Founder of the Mandela Project, and is part of the team behind the worldwide celebrations to mark the Nelson Mandela Centenary in 2018.

Focusing on the world around us, and particularly the problems that plastic causes for our environment and issues of sustainability, we'll offer a range of activities and challenges including at least one off-site visit as we engage with these crucial issues.

Booking: £20 per child per day (subsidised places are available in cases of financial hardship). Please contact the Education Centre on 020 7367 6715 or edcentre@southwark.anglican.org.

Sunday 9 September

Masvingo Link Support Group – Save the Date!

We are looking forward to welcoming Link Partners from Masvingo for five days in early September. At our Patronal Festival on 9 September, there will be an opportunity to meet Ethel Sibongile Katenjele, Father Misheck Mbodza and The Venerable Hillary Nhokwara, to find out how things are under the new regime and how best we can continue to support them in their work.

Over coffee there will also be a Mothers' Union Cake Sale to raise money for the MU in Masvingo.

Please put this important date in your diary.

Further to this there's a special board with photos and regularly updated information about our Link Diocese, next to the Zimbabwean map in the north aisle. If you haven't seen it so far, do take a few minutes to have a look.

Friday 21 – Sunday 23 September

Unity Group visit to Bergen, Norway

as part of our regular exchange of visits with friends at the Lutheran cathedral in Bergen. The full programme is still being developed but there will be a mix of talking and sightseeing. You will pay for fares and some accommodation with host families will be available, or a hotel if you prefer. If you might be interested please contact odette.penwarden@southwark.anglican.org or speak to any member of the Unity Committee.

2–5 May 2019

Visit to Assisi

The Friends will be taking a trip to Assisi in May next year. If you would like to receive information about the trip please email Kate on kate.dean@southwark.anglican.org Canon Michael Rawson will be accompanying us on the trip.

General Notices

Servers' Albs – Thank you

On behalf of the Guild of Servers of the Cathedral we should like to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to the donors of the new servers' albs. We now have four albs in each of five sizes. This means we can encourage younger people to join the Guild and it also simplifies the creation of the serving rota as we no longer need to take into account people's height! The albs are of excellent quality and will surely last for decades. Thank you.

Christian Aid Week – Thank You

Thank you very much for all the effort you put in in so many different ways during Christian Aid week. We collected a total of £1650.05, with which Christian Aid will certainly be able to do a great deal.

The Great Get Together Bankside – Volunteers needed

We need volunteers for the Cathedral Stall at the Great Get Together Bankside on Sunday 24 June on Union Street through the afternoon. No previous experience is necessary - just a friendly personality and a willingness to chat with members of the public and to offer them a free drink. Please be in touch with the Sub Dean, michael.rawson@southwark.anglican.org, if you could spare an hour or two on 24 June.

Ordination of Father David Adamson

David Adamson, who is curate at St George the Martyr, St Hugh's, and the Cathedral, will be ordained as a priest on 7 July. Many of you will know David, and he would appreciate your prayers as he prepares for ordination; please do take an ember prayer card. All are welcome at the ordination at 11.00am in St Mary's Lewisham on the 7th, and at his first Eucharist at 11.00 on the 8th, at St George the Martyr, or at 9.30am on the 15th at St Hugh's.

Growing in Faith and Life The Bishop's Certificate in Discipleship

Beginning in September 2018 and based around the Diocese, including at Trinity House on Borough High Street, this one year's course is an excellent way of learning more about the Christian faith and journey. Peter Graystone, Assistant Director of Discipleship and Ministry says: 'The ten month course helps people learn about the Bible, doctrine and mission. And later on it becomes practical in nurturing people's spirituality and life of prayer. It's the ideal first step for people who are considering a call to be a Reader or SPA, or on a vocational journey that might result in ordination. But I'd recommend it to any Christian who wants to understand why they believe what they believe.'

More about the course can be found in the leaflets at the back of the cathedral.

Data Protection

For details about how we look after and use your personal data please visit cathedral.southwark.anglican.org/cookies-and-general-privacy-notice/ or contact the Data Controller, Matthew Knight, on matthew.knight@southwark.anglican.org or telephone 020 7367 6726.

Plastic bottles

Thank you to those who have donated plastic drinks bottles to the Education Centre in the past few weeks.

We now have plenty of clear bottles and do not need any more. However, we do still need more coloured ones (such as Sprite or Mountain Dew bottles). We can use (empty) bottles of any size; please do bring them to the Education Centre.

We've got an environmental theme and will be 'recycling' the bottles as we transform them into flowers!

The Ordination of Lisa Bewick

We are delighted that Lisa Bewick, our Education Officer, will be ordained Deacon in the Cathedral on Saturday 30 June and will be a self-supporting Curate at St John's, Waterloo. In addition to her role as Education Officer and ministering at St John's, Lisa will spend the second Sunday of each month at the Cathedral supporting our ministry among families and young people. Chapter has identified our young people as a priority for the coming year and Lisa will help to make this a reality. Please remember Lisa in your prayers as she prepares for her Ordination.

Server Recruitment

Applications are welcome to join the Southwark Cathedral team of servers, who assist the clergy and vergers with the smooth operation of our regular Sunday and Festival services.

No prior experience is necessary but applicants must possess the following attributes/skills.

- Strength enough to carry candles/crosses
- Ability to stand for long periods of time
- Ability to manage steps easily
- Willingness to work as part of a team.

Training relevant to the role will be provided.

Please note this opportunity is only open to members of the congregation who have been worshipping with us regularly for at least six months.

We welcome applications from young people over the age of 11 (year 7).

To request an application pack please contact the Volunteers Officer Michelle Ford by emailing michelle.ford@southwark.anglican.org or calling 020 7367 6739

Please note due to the historical nature of our building we regret that we are currently unable to involve wheelchair users as servers.

Oberammergau 2020

Every ten years the people of the Bavarian village of Oberammergau fulfil their vow to God made in 1634 in thanksgiving for deliverance from the plague that was ravaging Europe by performing a Passion Play. Watching the play is an overwhelmingly powerful experience. As in the past we are organising two 'pilgrimages' to Oberammergau in 2020 and booking for them opens today. The first is with the Dean from 26 June – 3 July staying in the Tyrol and walking a section of Jacobsweg (the Austrian route of the Camino to Santiago) as well as visiting sights from the Sound of Music in Salzburg. The second is with Canon Michael Rawson and Canon Gilly Myers from 2–9 September staying in St Gilgen on beautiful Wolfgangsee with visits in the local area, lake steamer and mountain railway and a Sound of Music tour of Salzburg and other locations in the area. Brochures for both pilgrimage-holidays, each of which lasts a week, are available in the Cathedral and downloadable from southwarkcathedral.org.uk/worship-and-music/pilgrimage/#oberammergau. You can secure a place for a £200 deposit. A limited number of small bursaries are available to help meet the cost of the pilgrimage for those experiencing financial difficulties. Please contact the Sub Dean michael.rawson@southwark.anglican.org

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overie Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
