Southwark Cathedral has been a place of Christian worship for over 1000 years. The Cathedral's patchwork architecture bears testament to its past as do the many monuments and memorials inside and outside the church. These are reminders of the rich history of this part of London and our association with such major figures in our creative history, including Chaucer, Shakespeare and Dickens.

Southwark Cathedral is a place of worship, welcome and friendship, to rejoice in or find rest when you're weary. We are London's community Cathedral, a spiritual home for all at the heart of Bankside. Whatever has brought you here, you are most welcome.

All events are free of charge unless stated otherwise. Tickets for Cathedral events are available from our website or the Cathedral Shop.

presenting a programme of polyphony from four to 40 parts exploring the variety of texture created with different numbers of voice parts in a cappella polyphony.
From Tallis' intimate and simple If ye love me to his awe inspiring 40-part Spem in Alium through works by Byrd, Victoria, Praetorius and Guerrero,

we hope to showcase some of the different

Exhibitions

6 April – 17 May
Icons

The art of icon-painting is currently enjoying a revival, and spreading beyond its place of origin in the Orthodox Church.

Painter Andrew Paterson practises the traditional technique of icon-painting in egg tempera. This exhibition features his recent portrait-icons of Christ, Mary the Mother of God, and various saints, as well as an icon of the Annunciation.

– In the Refectory

18 May – 21 June
Paul Chatenay

The subject of this mixed media exhibition by Paul Chatenay is Christian history. The impact of this theme is timeless, displayed in many techniques with reference to many historical moments and archeological times. Taking everything from fragments of ancient ceramics and metal found in the River Thames to gold leaf. All of these artefacts construct this art form.

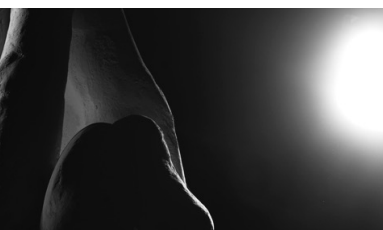

– In the Refectory

29 May – 11 June
Searching for God, Almighty Ha

Nic Fiddian-Green's monumental sculpture of hands in prayer will dominate the nave of the Cathedral from the period between the feasts of Ascension and Pentecost when the Bible tells us that the disciples, with Mary the mother of Jesus, 'were constantly devoting themselves to prayer.' (Acts 1. 14) The artist says that these hands were 'brought together to represent the gathering of people in fellowship to share their pains and through prayer offer all up to God who hears all.' The church at this time prays 'Thy Kingdom Come' and in a place that has in recent years seen the best and the worst of human nature this installation will encourage us all to join in prayer.

ands

– In the Cathedral Nave

1–30 June Garden Cocoon Space

Art-installation in the Herb Garden by Angela Wright enclosing objects that will facilitate discussion of the experience of memory.

For the artist it will be a return to childhood when the garden shed housed a wind-up record player and in the distinctive smell of wood and sunshine she shared special children's conversations.

– In the Herb Garden

22 June – 27 July Au Revoir

To celebrate the 17 years of exhibitions in the Refectory Gallery a group show of work by artists who have given much pleasure to the Cathedral community and visitors.

We thank them and will miss them.

– In the Refectory
