

SOUTHWARK

◆ CATHEDRAL ◆

Heritage Events Volunteers

Southwark Cathedral has a diverse and ever-expanding Visitor Engagement programme with events such as history talks with best-selling author and historian Alison Weir to Foreshore Walks with famous Mudlark Lara Maiklem.

We are recruiting for a small team of volunteers to help with these events.

What is involved?

- Helping to set up for events
- Selling books
- Greeting visitors
- Back-stopping on Foreshore Walks

What are we looking for?

- No previous experience is required
- Friendly, reliable and enthusiastic volunteers
- Interest in history, the arts, working with people
- Sympathetic to the aims and mission of the Cathedral

What will you get out of it?

- Training
- A chance to be part of exciting and interesting events
- Experience of volunteering in a historic London landmark
- An opportunity to meet new people and develop communication skills
- Discounts in the Cathedral Shop and Café
- An opportunity to make a contribution to the aims and mission of the Cathedral.
- More volunteer benefits are outlined in the volunteer handbook on the website.

Availability

Events are usually held in the evenings on Wednesdays and Thursdays and during the day on Saturdays although this can vary.

If you have any questions please contact Visitor Engagement Officer Emily Thorne at Emily.thorne@southwark.anglican.org

If you wish to apply please download the application form on the volunteer webpage and send the completed form to Cathedral.Volunteers@southwark.anglican.org.