A MEMBER OF THE

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Please ensure that all electronic devices are switched to silent.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photography and video recording of the Choir is not permitted.

You are welcome to take photographs of the Cathedral but please do not take any photographs or videos during the service.

HEARING LOOP

Please switch your device to 'T'.

POSTURE

The instructions in this booklet are not prescriptive. Please sit if that is more appropriate for you.

LIVESTREAMING

Please note that this service is livestreamed. If you would prefer not to appear in the livestream, please sit in the North Transept.

COLLECTIONS & DONATIONS

During the service, a collection will be taken for the maintenance, mission and worship of the Cathedral.

Cash donations may be placed in the baskets brought around by the stewards.

If you are a UK taxpayer we would be grateful if, before the service begins, you would complete the yellow envelope provided, since this enables us to claim a further 25% from the Inland Revenue.

Contactless donations can be made by tapping the terminal provided by the stewards. This is set at £10 but the stewards would be happy to alter this amount for you.

Alternatively, either before or after the service, there are several donation points in the Cathedral where you can make your donation, or you can simply scan the QR code, or text SOUTHWARK (Amount) to 70085 (one standard rate message is also charged). Thank you very much for your generous support of the Cathedral.

You can also support the Cathedral by buying your books from the ethical online bookseller bookshop.org and designating Southwark Cathedral shop for the 30% of purchase price donation they offer us.

THE ENTRANCE HYMN

NEH 374

How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes all sorrows, heals all wounds,
And drives away all fear.

It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.

Dear name! the rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding-place,
My never-failing treasury filled
With boundless stores of grace.

Jesus! my Shepherd, Brother, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

Weak is the effort of my heart,
and cold my warmest thought;
but when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.

Till then I would thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of thy name
Refresh my soul in death.

THE GATHERING

In the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

The Lord be with you.

All and also with you.

The President welcomes the congregation and introduces the celebration.

Members of Junior Xpress come forward for a blessing before departing for their worship and activities.

THE PRAYERS OF PENITENCE

The sacrifice of God is a broken spirit:
a broken and contrite heart God will not despise.

Let us come to the Lord, who is full of compassion, and acknowledge our transgressions in penitence and faith.

All Father eternal, giver of light and grace,
we have sinned against you and against our neighbour,
in what we have thought,
in what we have said and done,
through ignorance, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We have wounded your love,
and marred your image in us.
We are sorry and ashamed, and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for us,
forgive us all that is past;
and lead us out from darkness to walk as children of light.
Amen.

The Choir sings:

KYRIE ELEISON

Kyrie eleison.
Christe eleison.
Kyrie eleison.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

As the Choir sings the Kyrie, the congregation are sprinkled with holy water as a sign of penitence, recalling Psalm 51:

*“Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.”*

THE ABSOLUTION

May the Father of all mercies
cleanse us from our sins, and restore us in his image to the praise and glory of his name,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

THE COLLECT

Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Almighty God,
whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain,
and entered not into glory before he was crucified:
mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

THE FIRST READING

Isaiah 55.1-9

Read by Odette Penwarden

A reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Ho, everyone who thirsts,
come to the waters;
and you that have no money,
come, buy and eat!

Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which does not satisfy?

Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good,
and delight yourselves in rich food.

Incline your ear, and come to me;
listen, so that you may live.

I will make with you an everlasting covenant,
my steadfast, sure love for David.

See, I made him a witness to the peoples,
a leader and commander for the peoples.

See, you shall call nations that you do not know,
and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel,
for he has glorified you.

Seek the LORD while he may be found, call upon him while he is near;
let the wicked forsake their way,
and the unrighteous their thoughts;
let them return to the LORD, that he may have mercy on them,
and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.

For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

THE LENT PROSE

The response is:

Refrain (Cantor 1st time)

Hear us, O Lord, * have mer - cy up - on us:
for we have sinn - ed a - gainst_ thee.

To thee, Redeemer, on thy throne of glory:
lift we our weeping eyes in holy pleadings:
listen, O Jesu, to our supplications. R

God, we implore thee, in thy glory seated:
bow down and hearken to thy weeping children:
pity and pardon all our grievous trespasses. R

Sins oft committed now we lay before thee:
with true contrition, now no more we veil them: grant us, Redeemer, loving absolution. R

Innocent, captive, taken unresisting:
falsely accused, and for us sinners sentenced, save us,
we pray thee, Jesu our Redeemer. R

THE SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 10.1-13

Read by Peter Toyne

A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptised into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, and they were struck down in the wilderness.

Now these things occurred as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not become idolaters as some of them did; as it is written, 'The people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play.' We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents. And do not complain as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer. These things happened to them to serve as an example, and they were written down to instruct us, on whom the ends of the ages have come. So if you think you are standing, watch out that you do not fall. No testing has overtaken you that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing he will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please stand and turn to face the Gospel as the Procession moves into the Nave.

Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory.

All Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory.

The Lord is a great God;
O that today you would listen to his voice.
Harden not your hearts.

All Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory.

THE GOSPEL

Luke 13.1-9

All The Lord be with you
and also with you.

All Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
Glory to you, O Lord.

At that very time there were some present who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. He asked them, 'Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them—do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did.'

Then he told this parable: 'A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, "See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?" He replied, "Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig round it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down."'

All This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Please be seated after the opening prayer.

THE SERMON

Canon Michael Rawson, Sub Dean & Pastor

THE CREED

Please stand.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

In the power of the Spirit and in union with Christ
let us pray to the Father.

Please be seated or kneel.

*The prayers are led by Samuel Adelaja

These responses may be used:

Lord, in your mercy,
All hear our prayer.

(or)

Lord, hear us.
All Lord, graciously hear us.

And at the end:

Merciful Father,
All accept these prayers
 for the sake of your Son,
 our Saviour Jesus Christ.
 Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE SACRAMENT

Please stand.

THE PEACE

Christ is our peace.
He has reconciled us to God
in one body by the cross.
We meet in his name and share his peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you
All and also with you.

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

During the Hymn, bread and wine are presented at the Altar. A collection is taken (cash or contactless as detailed on page 2). Please use this QR code or the link to donate online.

THE OFFERTORY HYMN

NEH 282

Faithful Shepherd, feed me
In the pastures green;
Faithful Shepherd, lead me
Where thy steps are seen.

Hold me fast, and guide me
In the narrow way;
So, with thee beside me,
I shall never stray.

Daily bring me nearer
To the heavenly shore;
May my faith grow clearer,
May I love thee more.

Hallow every pleasure,
Every gift and pain;
Be thyself my treasure,
Though none else I gain.

Day by day prepare me
As thou seest best,
Then let angels bear me
To thy promised rest.

THE PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

God of mercy and compassion, your Word calls us home to faith and love.
Accept all we offer you this day;
in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

All Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

- The Lord be with you
All and also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
- All We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
- All It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is indeed right and good to give you thanks and praise, almighty God and everlasting Father, through Jesus Christ your Son.

For in these forty days
you lead us into the desert of repentance that through a pilgrimage of prayer and discipline we may grow in grace and learn to be your people once again.
Through fasting, prayer and acts of service
you bring us back to your generous heart.
Through study of your holy word you open our eyes to your presence in the world and free our hands to welcome others into the radiant splendour of your love.

As we prepare to celebrate the Easter feast with joyful hearts and minds we bless you for your mercy and join with saints and angels for ever praising you and singing:

The Choir sings:

Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus
Dominus Deus Sabaoth.
Pleni sunt caeli et terra gloria tua.
Hosanna in excelsis.

Holy, holy, holy
Lord God of Sabaoth.
Heaven and earth
are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

The President continues:

Lord, you are holy indeed, the source of all holiness;
grant that by the power of your Holy Spirit, and according to your holy will,
these gifts of bread and wine
may be to us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ;

who in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread and gave you thanks;
he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper
he took the cup and gave you thanks;
he gave it to them, saying:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus:

All Dying you destroyed our death,
rising you restored our life:
Lord Jesus, come in glory.

And so, Father, calling to mind his death on the cross, his perfect sacrifice made once for the sins of the whole world;
rejoicing in his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension,
and looking for his coming in glory,
we celebrate this memorial of our redemption.

As we offer you this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, we bring before you this bread and this cup and we thank you for counting us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.

Send the Holy Spirit on your people and gather into one in your kingdom all who share this one bread and one cup, so that we, in the company of the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints,
may praise and glorify you for ever,
through Jesus Christ our Lord;

by whom, and with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory be yours, almighty Father,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Trusting in the compassion of God,
as our Saviour taught us so we pray.

Please pray in whichever language you feel most comfortable.

All	Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread, Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.	Baba wa... Notre Père... 天におられる私たちの父よ... Nna anyi... Fader vår... Pai nosso... हे हमारे स्वर्गबासी पिता... THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Every time we eat this bread and drink this cup,

All we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessèd are those who are called to his supper.

All Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

Please be seated. If you wish to receive Holy Communion or a blessing, please follow the directions of the Stewards. If you wish to receive from the chalice, please go to the point of administration after receiving the host. Please do not dip the host into the chalice. If you would like to receive a blessing, please bow your head.

Members of all Christian churches are welcome to receive Communion. Whatever your faith tradition or background, you are most welcome to draw near for a blessing.

During the distribution of Communion, the Choir sings:

AGNUS DEI

Agnus Dei, qui tollis
peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis
peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis
peccata mundi,
dona nobis pacem.

O Lamb of God, who takes away the
sin of the world,
have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, who takes away the
sin of the world,
have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, who takes away the
sin of the world,
grant us thy peace.

Followed by:

THE COMMUNION ANTHEM

O salutaris hostia • Thomas Tallis (c. 1505-1585)

O salutaris hostia quae caeli pandis ostium,
bella premunt hostilia:
da robur, fer auxilium.

O saving victim
who opens the gate of heaven,
hostile wars press on us:
give strength, bring aid.

THE PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Please stand.

Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Merciful Lord,
grant your people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil, and with pure hearts and minds to follow you, the only God;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

THE NOTICES

Please be seated.

THE BLESSING

Please stand.

All The Lord be with you
 and also with you.

Christ give you grace to grow in holiness,
to deny yourselves, take up your cross,
and follow him;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

THE FINAL HYMN

NEH 368

Guide me, O thou great Redeemer,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty,
Hold me with thy powerful hand:
Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.

Open now the crystal fountain
Whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through:
Strong Deliverer,
Be thou still my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death, and hell's Destruction
Land me safe on Canaan's side:
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

Children and young people are an important part of our Cathedral family and play a vital role in our life together. We would love to encourage your children to join one of our Sunday groups for young people.

CRÈCHE

During the 11.00am Sunday Eucharist, crèche facilities are available in the Chapter Room for accompanied children under 4.

JUNIOR XPRESS

Junior Xpress is for children in Reception to Year 5 gathers each week in the Cathedral and after a prayer and blessing will go for worship and activities before rejoining the rest of the congregation for the Lord's Prayer and Holy Communion. Children are warmly invited to join Junior Xpress, especially if this is their first time. More details can be obtained from the Sub Dean michael.rawson@southwark.anglican.org

YOUTH XPRESS

Young people in Years 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 are invited to join Youth Xpress for discussion and debate around Christian themes. Breakfast is provided. We meet one Sunday every month at 10.45am in the Cathedral Library.

CATHEDRAL LISTENING TEAM

Would you like to talk to someone confidentially? Is something/one on your heart? The Cathedral Listening team are volunteers, who sit in the Retrochoir behind the High Altar after the Choral Eucharist on a Sunday, ready to listen to anyone who would like to talk in confidence. They are available from after the service until 1.00pm. If you would like to talk to a Cathedral Listener, please approach them directly or sit nearby if they are already occupied.

GIVING TO THE CATHEDRAL

The Sub Dean will lead a Q&A session on the Parish Giving Scheme after the 11.00am Choral Eucharist on Palm Sunday, 13 March. Everyone is welcome!

Everyone should have received an email about joining the Parish Giving Scheme (PGS) as a new way of giving to the Cathedral on a regular basis. We are encouraging everyone to move to this improved system. If you need any help signing up online or if you would prefer to have a paper copy of the application form please speak with our wardens, Linda and Daniel or contact Canon Michael Rawson.

You can sign up at: <https://tinyurl.com/bdzdpuhp>

You will need your personal bank account details; the name of our parish: Southwark Cathedral; the PGS code for our parish: 370637001; and whether you are eligible for Gift Aid.

A SAFE CHURCH

Canon Kathryn Fleming, Precentor, is Chapter Lead for Safeguarding. Any issues relating to the safeguarding of children or vulnerable adults should be directed to the Cathedral Safeguarding Officers in the first instance:

Cherry James cherry.james@southwark.anglican.org

Helen Quintrell hmqmc3@gmail.com

Jill Tilley jill.tilley@southwark.anglican.org

Concerns can be brought to any member of the clergy.

ELECTORAL ROLL REVISION 2025

The complete revision of the Electoral Roll has begun. In order to apply to join the Roll you must fill in an application form either electronically or by picking up and completing a paper form from the back of the Nave. Electoral Roll Champions will be on duty after the main Sunday services for the next few weeks to help you. There are boxes for the collection of completed forms at the back of the Nave. If you have any questions, please contact the Electoral Roll Officer sarah.mann@southwark.anglican.org

Applications will be accepted up until 13 April 2025 when the Roll closes. It will reopen after the annual meeting.

WHAT IS MODERN SLAVERY? WHAT CAN I DO ABOUT IT?

SUNDAY 4 MAY, 9.45AM

An introductory training session (1 hour) in the Library, for members of the congregation and Cathedral volunteers. All are welcome to come and learn about this year's social justice focus. This will be led by Babette Clarke from Hestia, our partner charity. This is an accessible introduction offered to increase our awareness – please join us.

VISIT FROM BERGEN CATHEDRAL

We are looking forward to welcoming a group from our linked Cathedral in Bergen over the weekend of 9 – 11 May. We hope to be able to arrange for some of our visitors to stay with members of the congregation during their visit. This can be an enriching experience, and has led to some close friendships in the past. Norwegians tend to speak very good English so language is not a problem. If you would like to offer some warm Southwark hospitality, please could you let Frances Hiller or Canon Michael Rawson know.

ORGAN RECITALS

LENT STUDY SESSIONS

SUNDAYS, 9.45AM

We are going to be exploring parts of Tarry Awhile by Selina Stone during Lent. Sessions take place throughout Lent at 9.45am on Sundays.

We hope that people will want to read all of this rich book but realise that this may not be possible. So, each week we will choose a section that we will explore together.

Don't worry if you can't read all the material we suggest as we will offer a summary of the sections at the beginning of our discussion of each of them so that we can explore the themes raised together.

TARRY AWHILE, SUNDAY 30 MARCH

For the last session on this book we will look at Chapter 6 – Healing (pp. 127-152). Please read the whole chapter if at all possible but we will focus particularly on the sections Shared Pain and Healing Together (pp. 142-152).

Please do join us. The book can be purchased from the Cathedral shop.

CONFIRMATION GROUP

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN EXPLORING THE CHRISTIAN FAITH?

Our Youth Confirmation Group for young people in years 7 and above will begin on 4 May at 4.15pm for six weeks with the Confirmation on the Eve of Pentecost, Saturday 7 June.

For more details and to register your interest please contact the Sub Dean, michael.rawson@southwark.anglican.org

THANK YOU FOR USING THE QR CODES FOR SERVICE SHEETS

We are really grateful to all those who are accessing the Sunday service sheets on their phone or device via the QR codes. This is an important part of our mission to reduce paper consumption and printing in our aspiration to care for the environment and achieve the Eco Church Gold Award. We will always ensure that there are paper copies of service sheets for those who want them. If you haven't yet tried the QR codes we would encourage you to ask a Steward and use the download.

SOUTHWARK CATHEDRAL PODCAST

THE WORLD NEEDS MORE POETRY!

The first programme in a short podcast series called The World Needs More Poetry! is now available. The series asks invited guests to choose a favourite poem and then chat to the Dean about why it is important to them. The series begins with Stella Kanu, Chief Executive of Shakespeare's Globe, who has chosen Roger Robinson's 'A Portable Paradise'.

THE NAZI MIND: 12 WARNINGS FROM HISTORY

In the Cathedral's latest podcast, the Dean, Mark Oakley, discusses Laurence Rees's latest book, 'The Nazi Mind: 12 Warnings from History', with the author. It is a book which combines history and the latest research in psychology to help answer some of the most perplexing questions surrounding the Second World War and the Holocaust. Ultimately, he delves into the darkness to explain how and why people were capable of committing such abhorrent crimes. Rees traces the rise and eventual fall of the Nazis through the lens of 'twelve warnings' – from talk about 'them' and 'us' to the escalation of racism – whilst also highlighting signs to look out for in present day leaders.

THE BISHOP OF SOUTHWARK'S LENT CALL

This year the Bishop of Southwark's Lent Call focuses on calling people to pray for and raise money for projects that help children and young people recover from trauma and which encourage their mental health in our Link Dioceses of Jerusalem and the Middle East, in Zimbabwe and here in our own diocese. <https://tinyurl.com/sfrant83>

Please do pray for them and consider giving at <https://tinyurl.com/ycm7ay44>

ARE YOU NEW TO THE CATHEDRAL?

We would love to get to know you, so please complete a Newcomer form, available from the stewards or contact the Sub Dean michael.rawson@southwark.anglican.org

SILENT PRAYER GROUP

On the 3rd Sunday of each month there is an opportunity to join others in silent, contemplative prayer. It is an opportunity to be attentive to the peace and reconciling presence of God's love. The group meets in the Library at 9.45am for a 9.55am start. All are welcome to attend.

LONDON MARATHON

Amine, a member of the Comptoir Gourmand team in the Cathedral Café, is running the London Marathon in support of Children with Cancer UK. You may like to sponsor him at <https://2025tcslondonmarathon.enthuse.com/pf/amine-firouchane>

LENT ARTWORK: BEHOLD THE MAN

Our Lent artwork, Behold the Man by Norman Adams, is now on display in the Sanctuary.

Behold the Man can be contrasted with Adams' Christ's Entry into Jerusalem. Following that jubilant occasion, we see a man in the hands of his enemies.

The face of Christ was a constant theme for Adams. He had two distinct ways of portraying him: as the cosmic Christ or, as here, the man of sorrows. We see Jesus preparing for immense suffering. Beneath the flame-coloured crown of thorns, his face is imprisoned behind bars, or perhaps the cross itself. Although the colours are bright, his eyes are dark, blinded by crosses. The painting's diamond shape resembles an opened-out envelope: something to convey a message perhaps?

The Passion was a common theme for Adams for fifty years. Early versions showed the whole Christ and were more formal. This painting is different. Here we look directly into the face of suffering – we behold the man.

The Dean says of the painting, 'The beauty of art is that sometimes, although we don't feel we understand it, we nevertheless sense that it understands us. To spend time with Adams' "Behold the Man" is to immerse ourselves in the suffering of Jesus, but it is also to see within ourselves something of the trials we undergo, and the prisons we are capable of putting others in, beholding, as it were, the shadows of humanity. I hope you'll find yourself drawn in to this work over the coming weeks of Lent'.

Norman Edward Albert Adams (9 February 1927 – 9 March 2005) was a British artist, and professor of painting at the Royal Academy Schools. He was married to the English poet and artist Anna Adams (1926–2011).

Visitors are invited to write a short, written response in the visitors' book.

Copies of Seeing the Spiritual, books of postcards and posters of the painting are on sale in the Cathedral Shop.

MOTHERING SUNDAY CAKE SALE

For all bakers and lovers of cake the Mothers' Union would like to invite you to a cake sale after the 11am service on the 30th March in the South Transept. Donations of cakes would be very welcome and the money raised will be donated to a toilet twinning scheme in Zimbabwe, as well as supporting the Bishop's Lent Appeal.

ROBES WINTER NIGHT SHELTER

CHRISTCHURCH, BLACKFRIARS

A huge thank you from the guests and volunteers staffing the Robes Shelter at Christchurch, Blackfriars for your very generous donations of clothing and toiletries. We have been hosting guests at the shelter on Friday nights from the beginning of January and it will close for this season on Friday 28 March.

Dan, Ross and Neil the Team Leaders would like to say a big thank you to the volunteers for their time, commitment and desire to make a difference in a practical way, demonstrating kindness and hospitality.

Robes is a key part of delivering the Cathedral's strategic vision. We make space for our guests to pause and take stock and give a hand with the very practical support of food, showers and a warm place to sleep. With these basic human needs met our guests can begin to focus on moving forward and moving away from a life on the streets. Thank you!

SAVE THE DATE

FRIDAY 29 AUGUST 2025, 4.00PM

Michael and Neil would be delighted if you are free to join them for Evensong at 4.00pm on Friday 29 August 2025, following their Civil Partnership and for a glass of fizz after the service.

SOUTHWARK

◆ CATHEDRAL ◆

making space for love with heart, mind, and soul

It is good to welcome you to Southwark Cathedral. Set on the south bank of the River Thames, in one of the most vibrant and diverse communities in London, this building has been a constant witness in a place of change.

The first church was built on this site around the year 606. First a convent, then a monastery, it became in 1106 the Augustinian Priory of St Mary Overie ('over-the-river'). With Westminster Abbey and St Bartholomew the Great in Smithfield, it is one of the three remaining great monastic churches of London. At the Reformation, the Priory became a parish church, and it remains so for the people of Bankside. In 1905, as south London was rapidly expanding, the church was consecrated as the Cathedral for the new Diocese of Southwark.

The Cathedral has a momentous and significant history and has had links with many famous and influential characters including St Thomas Becket, Geoffrey Chaucer, William Shakespeare and Charles Dickens. It has also been a Cathedral for those who feel on the edges of faith or society, our welcome reaching out to all people in their beautiful God-given diversity.

Here, our Christian faith is captured in our vision to 'make space for love: with heart, mind, and soul'. Faith requires our hearts to stand up for social justice, upholding integrity and kindness, and supporting the vulnerable and oppressed. It challenges our thinking, inviting our minds to be enquiring, honest, and generous. Faith also seeks to deepen our inner lives, with the arts and creativity, by sharing in the life of our community, and by learning the arts of prayer and attention. In Jesus Christ we see the human face of God, and our faith in him is our joy and our life.

We really hope you enjoy being here with us today and that we will see you again very soon.
