

June - September 2026

Living Faithfully

A programme of events and courses to develop and deepen our faith

SOUTHWARK
◆ CATHEDRAL ◆

Welcome to the latest edition of our Living Faithfully programme.

Whether you worship at the Cathedral already or want to explore your own faith and the ways it relates to our daily life and the world we live in, we look forward to welcoming you to one of our upcoming events.

June

17 - 21 June
The Retreat
Association Icon

An icon depicting the well-known story of Jesus meeting the Samaritan Woman at the Well (John 4:1-42). It has been displayed at over 25 retreat centres, and 9 churches and cathedrals across the UK. On display in the Lady Chapel.

Free, no ticket needed.

20 June | 2:30-4pm
Stories of Faith,
Hope and Love: In Conversation with Charlie Baczyk-Bell

For too long, conversations about the Church of England have been marked by anxiety, decline, and despair. Join us for the launch of this timely and compelling book — an invitation to reimagine the Church of England with honesty, courage, and hope.

Free tickets from Eventbrite.

July

1 July | 7-8pm
Theology Book Group

Do you enjoy reading theology? Or would you like to begin? Over a glass of wine at the Deanery, we will explore Lamorna Ash's book, Don't Forget We're Here Forever: A New Generation's Search for Religion. Available to buy from the shop.

Free, RSVP on our website.

2 July | 7-8.30pm
Liturgies of the Wild: Dr Martin
Shaw

Join writer, mythographer and Christian thinker Dr Martin Shaw in conversation with Sir Mark Rylance and Dr Rowan Williams to discuss his new book Liturgies of the Wild. Drawing on myth and initiatory rites, Shaw explores how ancient stories can guide us towards a deeper connection to the world around us.

Tickets £5 from Eventbrite.

31 July | 11-12pm
Mission & Ministry:
A Spiritual Tour of Southwark
Cathedral

Learn about the Cathedral's past as a place of Christian worship from the 12th century until today and its involvement with the wider Christian family. Hear about its place in the history of Bankside.

Tickets £9 from Eventbrite.

August

2 August | 9:50-10:30am

Visual Theology: The Good Samaritan by Jacopo Bassano

The next talk in our Visual Theology course takes place in our Library to look at Bassano's The Good Samaritan, painted in 1562-3 and currently displayed in the National Gallery. All are welcome to this 30 minute talk by the Dean as to how Bassano painted this parable of Jesus, related in Luke's Gospel, and what we can learn from his visual interpretation.

Free tickets from Eventbrite.

September

3 September - 7 October
Threads through the Cross

A textile art exhibition by Jacqui Parkinson. It starts with the birth of Jesus, takes the viewer through various scenes in his life, then the cross and resurrection, to Pentecost. On display in the Nave.

Free, no ticket needed.

17 September | 6:30-8pm
Breaking not Broken: Timothy Goode

Join Revd Canon Timothy Goode as he discusses his new book Breaking not Broken with the Dean. Drawing on disability theology and his own lived experience, Goode challenges the Church's inherited assumptions about disability, healing, and belonging. Offering a vision rooted in the wounded yet glorified body of Christ, this book invites us to imagine a more just and inclusive Church.

Tickets £5 from Eventbrite.

26 - 27 September
Lancelot400

Celebrating 400 years of Lancelot Andrewes, join us for a weekend of themed tours and talks. Programme to be announced.

The Southwark Cathedral Podcast

Listen to voices of the Cathedral, wherever you are. Hosted by members of the Cathedral team, each episode delves into an area of our mission and reveals a side of our work beyond the pulpit. Podcast guests include Archbishop Sarah Mullally, Laurence Rees, Manni Coe, Ed Davey MP, and many more.

Available on all major podcast platforms.

Opening Times
